SENIOR LEADERSHIP TEAM

JOHN P. ANGELOS

CHAIRMAN & CEO

Throughout his 25-year career as a sports, media, and entertainment industry thought leader, John P. Angelos has worked to redefine professional sports teams as community trusts and valued partners to the cities and states, taxpayers, and the American family fan base who are the glue that makes sports possible as a community bond. Believing in philanthropic stewardship as the core mission of every hometown sports team, and that athletes and executives have a role model obligation, John is focused on how the Orioles, the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), and Major League Baseball (MLB) can inspire young people, support families, and forge sustainable partnerships.

As Chairman and CEO, John leads the storied Orioles franchise and its pioneering sports television and digital media concern, MASN. In 2020, John was appointed to his current role by the Board of Directors of the Baltimore Orioles Limited Partnership Group and was confirmed as the Orioles MLB Control Person and managing partner by the thirty Major League Baseball Clubs, pursuant to the recommendation of the Commissioner's Office of MLB. John's appointment continues the Partnership Group's guiding principle to restore and maintain local ownership of the Orioles' franchise, which Peter G. Angelos accomplished in 1994, and to fulfill John's pledge to the community that, "So long as Fort McHenry stands watch over the Baltimore harbor, the Orioles will forever play at Camden Yards."

Born and raised in Baltimore, and a lifelong City resident, John previously served as the Chief Operating Officer of the Orioles and as President and COO of MASN. From 2006 to 2011, John was responsible for managing the day-to-day operations of both MASN and the Orioles. During this period, John put the organization on the path to an historic winning run between 2012 and 2016 when the Orioles made three Post-Season playoff appearances in five seasons and won more games than any other American League Club.

REVITALIZING A STORIED BALL CLUB

Prior to the 2019 MLB season, John launched the organizational transformation of the Orioles when he recruited and signed former Astros and Cardinals executive Mike Elias to become the Orioles 15th General Manager. Later that year, John announced the appointment of the Orioles' first Senior Leadership Team, responsible for managing all daily business operations of the Club. Under his leadership, the Senior Leadership Team's business expertise, and the GM's baseball acumen, the Orioles are implementing a modern, collaborative organizational structure, pursuing a disciplined capital reinvestment strategy, and returning the Club, MASN, and the Partnership Group to consistent competitiveness.

The revitalization of the Club's baseball operations player development, international scouting, and analytics-based R&D capabilities led to a historic turnaround season in 2022. The team finished with an 83-79 record, a 31-win improvement from 2021, and made a Postseason push, becoming the last team eliminated from playoff contention in the final week of the season. The 2022 campaign marked the O's first winning season since 2016, and their .512 winning percentage was the largest increase in winning percentage from 2021 to 2022 in Major League Baseball and one of the more dramatic year-over-year improvements in the history of the sport.

The efforts have also rapidly vaulted the Orioles from the bottom third of the league to the No. 1-ranked scouting and minor league system in MLB, according to the 2022 and 2023 industry rankings published by Baseball America, ESPN, MLB Pipeline, and FanGraphs – a first in Orioles' history. To accomplish this rapid transition, John strategically redeployed and invested more than $250 million to fund Elias' and the Senior Leadership Team's reinvestment into international player acquisition, domestic draft signing bonuses, and advanced technology and intellectual property creation. Central to this strategy was the expansion and redesign of the Orioles network of developmental player training academies, consisting of seven state-of-the-art facilities located in the Dominican Republic and throughout the United States, with future international training sites also envisioned.

DRIVING ECONOMIC IMPACT

Recognized locally and internationally for his contributions to MLB, John has been commended by Bloomberg Sports, Leaders In Sport, and called by the Sports Business Journal a "power player" and a "top-ten decision maker" in the sports, media, and entertainment industries. He has been praised for his "reinvention of the Spring Training business model", views on increasing parity and fair play in sports leagues, and for his innovative taxpayer-conscious, record-setting sports tourism economic development projects brought to life by Orioles' partnerships that he personally forged with the states of Maryland and Florida.

Under John's leadership, the Orioles have generated over $10 billion in economic impact benefiting the state of Maryland since Camden Yards opened and driven more than $650 million in tourism impact for the state of Florida since the Orioles relocated the Club's Spring Training and year-round development headquarters to Sarasota in 2010. In 2022, John secured a record $1.2 billion private-public partnership commitment from the State of Maryland, the second largest such partnership in MLB history. This commitment will be a catalyst for Baltimore's second renaissance, drawing tourism to downtown

Baltimore and adding to the more than 75 million people who have already visited the City to experience Orioles Magic at "The Ballpark that Forever Changed Baseball."

PROMOTING THE O's FAR AND WIDE

Under John's stewardship, the Orioles have created a captivating Ballpark fan experience, acclaimed by consumers and commentators as one of the nation's most beautifully curated, fan-friendly destinations. To market the Orioles experience across a large region, the Club is one of a handful of sports teams in the U.S. and globally to have founded and successfully managed its sports media and television network. Beginning in 2006, John successfully planned, launched, and distributed MASN throughout the Orioles entire seven-state Mid-Atlantic regional territory, making it one of the top three regional networks in North America. Since its founding, MASN has produced and telecasted nearly 20,000 live MLB games, as well as other professional and major college games and programming, winning more than 40 Emmy and Addy awards for broadcast excellence. During that same time, the Orioles mirrored MASN's geographic media footprint by tripling the size of the Club's regional O's Radio Network, expanding it to more than 40 affiliated stations across the Mid-Atlantic.

BROADENING THE MISSION

Reflecting his conviction that Camden Yards must serve the community as more than a sports-only destination, John has led the charge to establish the Orioles' home as a preeminent entertainment venue, optimizing return on investment for Baltimoreans and the Maryland Stadium Authority. John brought the legendary Billy Joel to Baltimore City in 2019 for the first major concert in Oriole Park history, and in 2022 he signed iconic singer and songwriter Sir Paul McCartney for the only Mid-Atlantic appearance by the former Beatle on his sold-out "Got Back" tour. Having pioneered the fusion of live music concerts with professional sports events two decades ago, the Orioles relaunched in 2019 the Club's Birdland Summer Music Series, Friday Fireworks & Music, and Athletes & Artists Play for Kids programs with the objectives of making Baltimore and Camden Yards a must-play touring stop for leading musical artists while raising money to support voting and health care rights of women and young girls, secondary school music and arts programs, and early childhood nutrition initiatives.

Most recently, John showed his support in the next Baltimore renaissance, making a $5 million commitment to CollegeBound Foundation, a Baltimore-based organization that employs Baltimore City Schools' students to successfully pursue and complete a college degree or other post-secondary option. Under John's leadership, the Orioles are also committed to offering CollegeBound students paid internships, with the hope of developing and retaining invaluable local talent.

COMMUNITY IMPACT AROUND THE CORNER & ACROSS THE GLOBE

Ensuring that the O's experience is accessible to all, John created the industry-first Kids Cheer Free program to enable families to bring every child under 10-years old to any Orioles game absolutely free. The Birdland Community Heroes program extends the reach of the Orioles Charitable Foundation to partner with hundreds of grassroots micro-charitable organizations doing good works in Baltimore and across Maryland. Globally, the Foundation has partnered with the United Nations to address the looming threat of climate change and promoted people-to-people diplomacy through sports exchanges with Cuba, Greece, and the Dominican Republic. John's commitment to the CEO Action Pledge has guided the Orioles and MASN to recruit qualified, disadvantaged, diverse candidates, and points of view to the MLB community. John opened Camden Yards during the COVID-19 pandemic to facilitate testing of tens of thousands of Marylanders and championed voting rights when he made the Ballpark a secure polling place for the 2020 election and all future election cycles.

LEADERSHIP, SERVICE & EXPERTISE

John has been appointed by the Commissioner of Baseball to the MLB Business and Media Board, the MLB Strategic Planning Committee, the MLB Legislative Affairs Committee, and the Players Alliance Advisory Committee. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Maryland Institute College of Art, a top ten art and design college in the United States, and on the Board of Directors of the Baltimore Community Foundation, which strengthens schools and neighborhoods through philanthropy.

As a result of his nearly three decades at the forefront of the sports, media, and entertainment industries, John is regularly sought after by major broadcast and news outlets, making frequent appearances on CBS Television and Radio, Bloomberg Media, PBS, MSNBC, Fox Sports Radio, Rogers Media, ESPN, while also being featured in the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, and The Nation among numerous other national and international publications.

GREG BADER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION & EXPERIENCE

A member of the Orioles organization for 29 years, Greg Bader was named the club's Senior Vice President of Administration & Experience in October of 2019.

In his current role, Bader oversees all administrative and service functions of the club and all facets of the Camden Yards experience, including ballpark operations, game experience, ticket operations, customer service, and marketing. His efforts focus on initiatives that deliver the ultimate fan experience, including the groundbreaking Kids Cheer Free program, and additional unique entertainment opportunities through concerts and non-baseball events at Oriole Park.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Bader has spent his entire career with the Orioles organization, which began in 1994 as a public relations intern. He joined the club full-time in 1998 as Party Facilities Coordinator, and has also served as Spring Training Coordinator (1999-2002), Advertising and Affiliate Relations Manager (2003-06), Communications Director (2007-12), and Vice President of Communications & Marketing (2012-19).

Bader serves on the Board of Directors for Baltimore Convention and Tourism and is chair of the Marketing & Communications Committee for Visit Baltimore. A native of Baltimore, Bader graduated from the Gilman School and Trinity College (Hartford, Conn.) with a degree in political science. He resides in Locust Point with his husband, John Jackowski.

T.J. BRIGHTMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

T.J. Brightman rejoined the club as Senior Vice President, Chief Revenue Officer in October of 2019. In this role, Brightman focuses on business operations, revenue generation through ticket and corporate sales for the Baltimore and Sarasota, Fla. Operations, Orioles Entertainment, driving tourism, and creating local economic impact for the city, state, and surrounding area.

He originally joined the Orioles organization in 2003 and served as the Vice President of Corporate Sales & Sponsorship until 2005. He also acted as a special advisor to the partnership group from 2007 until he returned to the Orioles front office in 2019. Most recently, Brightman served as the president of A. Bright Idea Advertising and PR, the creative coast-to-coast advertising agency owned and operated by his wife, Anita.

A Baltimore native, Brightman attended the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute. He graduated from The Pennsylvania State University's College of Communications and now serves as a board member for the Penn State Bellisario College of Communications Alumni Society. Brightman and his wife, Anita, have two children. They reside in Maryland and California.

MIKE ELIAS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Elias was named the Orioles' Executive Vice President and General Manager on November 16, 2018. He is entering his 17th season in Major League Baseball and fifth with the Orioles.

During his tenure, Elias has worked quickly to revamp the Orioles' player development system, revitalize the club's international scouting presence, and expand the team's analytics department. As a result of these dedicated efforts, the franchise is now flush with young talent and positioned for longstanding competitiveness in the American League East. The Orioles have rapidly ascended in annual MLB organizational talent rankings, moving from the bottom third before Elias' arrival to as high as first or second overall by each of Baseball America, ESPN, FanGraphs, and MLBPipeline across each of the past two years. Elias' first draft in 2019 has already produced two rookies, Adley Rutschman and Gunnar Henderson, who were each ranked as the No. 1 overall prospect in Major League Baseball, according to Baseball America and MLB Pipeline, and the Orioles' top-ranked player development system currently boasts several other players who rank amongst the very best prospects throughout the minor leagues.

The efforts to revitalize the Orioles' scouting, player development, and talent procurement capabilities led to a historic turnaround season in 2022. The team finished with an 83-79 record, a 31-win improvement from 2021, and made a Postseason push, becoming the last team eliminated from playoff contention in the final week of the season. The 2022 campaign marked the O's first winning season since 2016, and their .512 winning percentage, a .191 increase from 2021, was the largest increase in winning percentage from 2021 to 2022 in Major League Baseball and one of the more dramatic year-over-year improvements in the history of the sport.

Before joining the Orioles, Elias served as Assistant General Manager, Player Acquisition with the Houston Astros. Throughout his seven years in Houston, he helped to shape an Astros roster that produced back-to-back 100-win seasons, a World Series Championship, two American League Championship Series appearances, and two division titles. He was an integral part of building one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems that routinely served to furnish talent for the Major League roster and drafted several of the game's current young superstars.

Elias joined the Astros in 2012 as a special assistant to the General Manager and was a key contributor to Houston's top-ranked First-Year Player Draft by Baseball America. That year, he was named the club's Director of Amateur Scouting, a role in which he served as one of the organization's top talent evaluators. In 2016, he was promoted to Assistant General Manager, Scouting and Player Development, overseeing player development, minor league operations, and the draft. Additionally, he led international scouting efforts for the club beginning in August of 2017.

Prior to joining the Astros, Elias spent five seasons as a scout with the St. Louis Cardinals, including over a year as the club's Manager of Amateur Scouting. During his time with the Cardinals, the club produced a consistently top-ranked farm system and won the 2011 World Series.

Elias, 40, is a native of Fairfax County, Va., where he attended Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology. A 2006 graduate of Yale University (Conn.), he was a four-time letter winner as a left-handed pitcher for the Bulldogs baseball team. He and his wife, Alexandra, reside in Baltimore with their daughter, Evelyn, and son, Samuel.

JENNIFER GRONDAHL SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT & COMMUNICATIONS

Jennifer Grondahl was named the club's Senior Vice President of Community Development & Communications in October of 2019. In this role, Grondahl focuses on building and maintaining relationships with partners, community leaders, civic organizations, fans, and the media to enhance the club's community outreach efforts. She oversees the organization's community and philanthropic initiatives, as well as the Orioles Charitable Foundation.

Grondahl joined the Orioles organization in February of 2018 as the Director of Corporate & Community Partnerships for Sarasota Operations. Prior to joining the Orioles, she served as Founder/President of Maestro Marketing & Events, where she provided strategic communication services for numerous corporations, nonprofits, and individuals. She was also the President of the YMCA Foundation of Sarasota, Inc. from 2013-16, and the Executive Director of the American Cancer Society from 2002-04.

Grondahl is a member of the Sarasota Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and the Tourism, Entertainment, and Culture Committee of the Greater Baltimore Committee. She was a founding member of Sisterhood for Good, the largest women's giving circle of the Manatee Community Foundation. She has also acted in leadership capacities for many charitable organizations in the Sarasota region, including Junior League of Manatee County, Rotary Club of Lakewood Ranch, and PACE Center for Girls.

Grondahl graduated from Bethany College (WV) with a bachelor's degree in political science, and received her certificate in fundraising management from Indiana University's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy in 2016. She currently resides in Baltimore, Md. and Bradenton, Fla. with her husband, Paul.

MIKE HOPPES SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Mike Hoppes was named the club's Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer in November of 2020. In this role, Hoppes oversees the organization's finance and accounting functions, including the team's financial reporting with Major League Baseball and the Commissioner's Office.

A native of Germantown, Md., Hoppes has been with the Orioles for 36 years. He joined the team in 1986 as a staff accountant after spending two years as a staff auditor with Arthur Andersen LLP, where he helped set up internal controls for the Orioles Ticket Office as a consultant. In 2006, he was promoted to Director of Finance, a role he held until being named the Vice President of Finance in 2012.

Hoppes attended the University of Delaware, where he graduated cum laude in accounting. He received his CPA certification in 1987. Hoppes currently resides in Baldwin, Md., and is active in his church including participating in the garden ministry.

CAL PERRY SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF CONTENT OFFICER

A 20-year veteran of the broadcast industry, Cal Perry was named the club's Senior Vice President and Chief Content Officer in December 2022.

In his current role, Perry oversees the Orioles' creative content efforts and is responsible for integrating the team's content throughout the organization and with club partners. He joins the club's Senior Leadership Team that manages all aspects of the organization's business and baseball operations, consisting of seven veteran executives each holding decades of industry experience.

Perry began his journalism career at CNN as an assignment editor on the International Desk before being named a Baghdad-based producer, where he served as an embedded reporter during the Iraq War. He was then promoted to Bureau Chief and correspondent at CNN, where he gained experience serving in posts around the world and covering a variety of stories. Perry also spent time with Al Jazeera Media Network as a Senior Correspondent in the Middle East. He later worked as an executive at Voice of America before joining NBC News. There, Perry served both as the Global News Editor, Digital Content and most recently as an on-air network correspondent.

A native of Washington, D.C., Perry received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Government from Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

LISA TOLSON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Now in her 38th year with the club, Lisa Tolson was named Senior Vice President of Human Resources in May of 2019. She began her career with the organization in group sales before transitioning to finance and eventually finding a permanent home in human resources. She served as the Director of Human Resources for 18 years from 2000-18 and was promoted to Vice President in August of 2018.

In her role, Tolson oversees recruiting efforts and promoting the Orioles' culture and mission to deliver on key objectives, one of which includes fueling the local economy through employment opportunities.

Tolson received her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification through the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) in 2001 and her SHRM-CP in June 2015. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Brandon Tolson Foundation, which offers support to families after the sudden and tragic loss of a child.

Tolson resides in Phoenix, Md. with her husband Patrick. They have two children: Paige and Chad.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

SIG MEJDAL

VICE PRESIDENT AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, ANALYTICS

Sig Mejdal was named the Orioles' Vice President and Assistant General Manager, Analytics on November 21, 2018. In his role, Mejdal oversees all aspects of the club's growing analytics efforts while assisting and advising Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias in all manners of Baseball Operations decisions. Mejdal is entering his 19th season in Major League Baseball and fifth with the Orioles.

Before joining the Orioles, Mejdal served as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Process Improvement with the Houston Astros. In this role, Mejdal supported the development, implementation, and monitoring of improvement initiatives throughout the organization. Mejdal joined the Astros in 2012 and organized the team's analytics department from its inception. He spent his seven years in Houston contributing to a variety of efforts across baseball operations, ranging from data and player analysis, to the amateur draft, to the Major League team. He was a key asset in the process that helped the Astros improve their season record by more than 50 wins between 2013 and 2017, while also drafting more Major League players than any other team during his tenure. During his time, the Astros won a World Series Championship, made two American League Championship Series appearances, and won two division titles.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mejdal worked for the St. Louis Cardinals for seven seasons, spending his final season as the team's Director, Amateur Draft Analysis. During his time with the Cardinals, he was an integral part of the draft decision-making processes that led to the selection of more Major League players than any other organization in that time frame. His professional baseball career began as a Quantitative Analyst for the Cardinals in 2005.

Mejdal, a California native, earned bachelor's degrees in mechanical engineering and aeronautical engineering from the University of California, Davis, as well as master's degrees in operations research and cognitive psychology from San Jose State University (CA) Prior to beginning his baseball career, he worked for NASA as a biomathematician. He and his wife, Arati, reside in Baltimore.

EVE ROSENBAUM

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Eve Rosenbaum joined the Orioles organization in November of 2019 as the club's Director of Baseball Development, and was promoted to Assistant General Manager, Baseball Operations in June 2022. In her role, she oversees roster management, transactions, financial planning, and Major and minor league operations, while also playing a key role in player evaluation and acquisition across the pro and amateur markets. She also assists with all baseball operations decisions and departmental management.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Rosenbaum spent five seasons in the Houston Astros organization, most recently serving as the club's Manager of International Scouting. She also worked for the National Football League from 2012-15 as a Junior Rotational Program Member and as Manager of Business Intelligence and Optimization.

Rosenbaum is a native of Bethesda, Md. and attended Harvard University (MA). She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in philosophy, and was a catcher on the Crimson varsity softball team. In November 2021, Rosenbaum was inducted into the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame. She currently resides in Baltimore.

KOBY PEREZ

SENIOR DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

Koby Perez enters his fifth season as the club's Senior Director of International Scouting. He oversees all aspects of the Orioles' international scouting operations and management of the club's bonus pool.

During his tenure, he has presided over four of the club's most historic international signing classes. He led the team in the two largest signing classes in club history in 2019-20 and 2022-23; landed the organization's first seven-figure signings in 2020-21 with Maikol Hernández and Samuel Basallo; and signed the two highest-paid international players in Orioles history, Braylin Tavera, in 2021-22, and Luis Almeyda, in 2022-23. He has also been instrumental in the development of the club's new state-of-the-art training academy in Guerra, Dominican Republic, which officially broke ground in October of 2021.

He joined the organization in January of 2019 following five seasons in the Cleveland Indians organization, first as an International Crosschecker for two years and later as their Director of Latin American Scouting. Perez has worked in professional baseball since 2006, working for the St. Louis Cardinals (2006-08), Philadelphia Phillies (2009-13), and Cleveland Indians (2014-18).

Born in Tamayo, Dominican Republic, Perez grew up in North Bergen, N.J. He played for two seasons in the Red Sox organization from 2002-03 and in the Independent Atlantic League from 2003-05.

Perez received his bachelor's degree in recreation and sports management from Florida International University. He currently resides in Elkridge, Md., with his wife, Johanna, and their children: Pamela and Koby (KJ).

MATT BLOOD

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Matt Blood joined the Orioles organization as the Director of Player Development in September of 2019. His duties include staff recruitment and development as well as the implementation of player development strategies and programs throughout the entire minor league system. During his tenure, the Orioles have ascended organizational farm system rankings, now rated as the top system in all of baseball by Baseball America, ESPN, and MLB Pipeline.

Blood has 11 years of Major League experience and has spent 17 years in professional and amateur baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as the Director of Player Development for the Texas Rangers for the 2019 season. He also worked for the St. Louis Cardinals as an area scout from 2009-15 and served as the Team Director for USA Baseball's 18U National Team from 2016-18.

Blood graduated from the University of North Carolina in 2007 with a degree in economics. He resides in Baltimore with his wife, Allison, and their two children: Henry and Ben.

BRAD CIOLEK

DIRECTOR, DRAFT OPERATIONS

Brad Ciolek enters his 12th season with the Orioles and his second season as the Director of Draft Operations. He began his Orioles career in 2011 as a player development intern in Sarasota, Fla. before serving as Scouting Administrator (2013-16), Assistant Director of Scouting (2017-19), and Supervisor of Domestic Scouting Operations (2021-22).

In his current role, Ciolek oversees all facets pertaining to the amateur draft, including scouting logistics and administration. He travels across the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico to evaluate and recommend players for the First-Year Player Draft. Ciolek also supervises a team of scouting analysts and manages the club's signing bonus pool for the MLB Draft.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ciolek spent four seasons with the New York Mets (2007-10) and one year as an analyst for Bloomberg Sports (2012).

Ciolek graduated from Seton Hall University (NJ) in 2009 with a degree in business administration and received his master's degree in computer information systems from Colorado State University in 2017. He resides in Bel Air, Md. with his wife, Danielle, and their son, James.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BRENDAN FOURNIE

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL STRATEGY

Brendan Fournie begins his second season with the Orioles after joining the club in November of 2021. As the Director of Baseball Strategy, Fournie oversees baseball economic research and advises the baseball operations team on transactions, contracts, and investment decisions.

The 2023 season marks Fournie's eighth season in Major League Baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent six seasons with the Houston Astros, beginning his career in 2016 as a baseball operations apprentice. He was promoted to Coordinator, Baseball Operations in 2017 and Manager, Baseball Operations in 2018 before being named the club's Senior Manager of Player Valuation and Economics in 2020, a role he held until joining Baltimore.

A native of Columbia, Ill., Fournie attended the University of Missouri and received dual bachelor's degrees in finance and sport management. He received his master's degree in sport management from the University of Florida, where he also minored in statistics and entrepreneurship. He currently resides in Baltimore.

KENT QUALLS

DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Kent Qualls enters his 11th year as the Director of Minor League Operations for the Orioles. He oversees the administration of the Orioles Player Development department, minor league affiliate relationships, the Dominican Academy, and winter ball assignments. His responsibilities also include handling Major League and minor league contracts and negotiations, player transactions, salary arbitrations, and rules compliance.

Qualls has 26 years of professional baseball operations experience at the level. He spent eight years with the Boston Red Sox from 1995-2002, working as Director of Player Development and Director of Baseball Operations. He also spent eight seasons with the Montreal Expos from 1987-94, rising to Director of Minor League Operations for the organizations. Additionally, Qualls served for 10 years as the Director of the Dan Duquette Sports Academy in Hinsdale, Mass.

A graduate of the University of Kentucky, Qualls and his wife, Irene, have two children: Kyle and Chloe. They reside in Woodbine, Md.

MIKE SNYDER

DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Mike Snyder enters his 15th year with the Orioles and his fourth as the Director of Professional Scouting. In this role, he oversees the club's pro scouting and player analysis across the majors, minor league baseball, and Asian professional leagues. Additional responsibilities include assisting with contract negotiations, 40-man roster construction and player transactions, and departmental hiring.

Snyder previously served as the club's Director of Pacific Rim Operations & Baseball Development (2015-19), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2013-14), Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development (2012), Baseball Operations Assistant and International Scout (2010-11), and Baseball Operations Intern (2009). In his time with the Orioles, he has had active involvement in the amateur draft, international scouting, compliance, contracts, and salary arbitration.

Snyder graduated with honors from Princeton University (NJ) in 2008 with a degree in economics, and he received his master's degree in applied and computational mathematics from Johns Hopkins University in 2019.

A native of Milton, Mass., Snyder and his wife, Lindsay, reside in Frederick, Md. with their two children, Ellie and Jonah.

DI ZOU

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL SYSTEMS

Di Zou enters his seventh season with the Orioles, and his second as the Director of Baseball Systems. In his current role, he oversees development of internal baseball operations information systems and contributes to various initiatives related to baseball technology and analytics.
Zou was hired in 2017 as a Developer of Baseball Systems, a role he held for three years, before being promoted to Manager of Baseball Systems. Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as a software engineer at various tech companies, including the Army Research Lab, BoxTone, Bridgestone, and HubSpot, where he focused on application development and data engineering.

Zou is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in mathematics. He and his wife, Tina Zhang, reside in Ellicott City, Md. with their daughters, Isabelle and Rosie.

J. MARIA ARELLANO SENIOR MANAGER, INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS & ADMINISTRATION

J. Maria Arellano enters her 18th season with the Orioles. She is responsible for handling minor league and international scouting operations and administration, including contracts, rules compliance, roster transactions, budgeting, travel, payroll, and insurance. She also heads the club's immigration program to ensure all major and minor league players and staff have authorization to enter and work in the United States and Canada.

Arellano joined the Orioles in 2006 as an administration assistant to player development. Throughout her tenure, she has held the roles of Coordinator of Minor League Administration and Manager of Minor League and International Administration, before being promoted to her current role in January of 2023. Prior to joining the Orioles, Arellano spent five seasons with the Los Angeles Angels and two seasons with the Montreal Expos.

Arellano attended the University of New Mexico for both undergrad and graduate school. She graduated cum laude with a bachelor of business administration from the Anderson School of Management, and later received her master of science with a concentration in sports administration.

Arellano grew up in Hobbs, N.M. She currently resides in Baltimore.

SPENSER CLARK MANAGER, TEAM TRAVEL

Spenser Clark enters his second season with the Orioles as Manager of Team Travel. In this role he manages and oversees all aspects of the Orioles' travel arrangements and accommodations.

The 2023 season marks Clark's fifth year in Major League Baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent three seasons with the Washington Nationals (2013-2016) as a batboy and clubhouse attendant, including serving as a batboy in the 2018 MLB All-Star Game in Washington, D.C. Additionally, Clark has completed two internships with the Labor Relations Department in the Office of the Commissioner.

A native of Kennesaw, Ga., Clark attended Howard University where he received his bachelor's degree in sports management. He received his Juris Doctorate (JD) degree from the University of Georgia School of Law. In between his stints in baseball, Clark worked as an attorney in the Atlanta area. He currently resides in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

IN THE COMMUNITY

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

The Orioles' impact on Baltimore has extended far beyond the radius of Camden Yards. Since the partnership group led by Peter Angelos purchased the team in 1993, the Orioles and the Orioles Charitable Foundation have donated more than $25 million to countless organizations in the Birdland community. The organization's commitment to Strengthening Our Community and Empowering Our Youth is evident by the many ongoing programs that the Orioles continue to implement year-round:

STRENGTHENING OUR COMMUNITY

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

As part of the club's ongoing community efforts, and in celebration of the 30th anniversary of Oriole Park at Camden Yards during the 2022 season, the Orioles partnered with Habitat for Humanity to provide housing to those in need in our own backyard for decades to come. Located in the shadows of Oriole Park in the Pigtown neighborhood, the Orioles helped build three new-construction homes during various build days throughout the year. Uniformed personnel, Orioles Families, and members of the front office and Orange & Black Gives Back Employee Volunteer Program contributed by painting, attaching siding, cleaning the build site, and more.

COMMUNITY BOOTHS

Throughout the season, community booths help local non-profit organizations raise awareness for their causes giving them the opportunity to share their mission and raise money for their organization. The Orioles hosted 14 local organizations at the ballpark in 2022.

The Orioles also held memorabilia sales, raising more than $21,000 to benefit organizations including Adopt-A-Block, Everytown for Gun Safety, and Moms Demand Action.

BIRDLAND COMMUNITY HEROES

The Birdland Community Heroes program, founded by Orioles Chairman and CEO John Angelos in 2016, honors and recognizes community heroes who inspire us through their spirited commitment to extend a hand in charity, service, hope, and harmony. The Orioles recognized nine community members in 2022. In honor of their recognition, the Orioles Charitable Foundation made a $5,000 donation to each Hero's respective organization.

Among those recognized were community members who support LGBTQ+ Rights, volunteers from Meals on Wheels, The Food Project, an organization that provides food and education to Baltimore youth, and local Baltimore children who are battling long-term illnesses and conditions in recognition of Childhood Cancer Awareness Month in September.

COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS

Throughout each season, the Orioles donate thousands of tickets to local organizations, recognizing volunteers, first responders, and nonprofit groups. More than 14,000 tickets were donated in 2022.

HEROES CORNER

Established in 2021, "Heroes Corner" served as a way to give back and show appreciation to local frontline workers and volunteers, including healthcare workers, teachers, community volunteers, and more. As part of the initiative, the Orioles donated more than 1,300 total tickets to 16 different community groups during the 2022 season. Heroes were also thanked during an in-game welcome when they were featured on the Orioles video board.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

In order to support community groups, the Orioles make in-kind donations each year to help organizations raise money and awareness for charity events. The Orioles supported more than 800 nonprofit organizations in 2022, donating autographed items to help raise money through silent auctions and other initiatives.

SPECIALTY AUCTIONS

The Orioles hosted seven specialty online auctions to benefit specific community and club initiatives this past year. Together, more than $54,000 was raised to benefit The Jackie Robinson Foundation, the Susan G. Komen Foundation, The Baltimore Station, the ALS Association, the ALS Clinic at Johns Hopkins, I AM ALS, the Brady Urological Institute at Johns Hopkins, and the Orioles Charitable Foundation.

EMPOWERING OUR YOUTH

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

The Orioles have commited $5 million to CollegeBound Foundation in support of the next Baltimore renaissance. The CollegeBound Foundation empowers Baltimore City Schools' students to successfully pursue and complete a college degree or other post-secondary option. As part of the initiative and in addition to the College Completion Program and scholarships, the Orioles will provide paid internships to former Baltimore City students and current College Completion Program scholars.

ATHLETES & ARTISTS PLAY FOR KIDS

Co-founded by John Angelos and his wife, Margaret Valentine, Athletes & Artists Play for Kids charity weekend launched in 2015, and combines song and sport to support arts education and girls' empowerment.

The weekend-long event takes place at Ed Smith Stadium in Sarasota, Fla. Throughout the weekend, the Orioles offer free community workshops for local youth, hosted by participating musicians and baseball alumni who donate their time and talent to ensure that gifted kids in disadvantaged communities have access to arts and music education.

The weekend is highlighted by "Nashville's Music Row Comes to the Ballpark," a one-of-a-kind, all-access VIP charity event that brings Orioles players and Nashville artists together in support of music education. A portion of proceeds from the event benefits the Orioles Charitable Foundation's Music & Arts Education Scholarship. Since the inception in 2015, hundreds of thousands of dollars have benefited Girls, Inc., Baltimore School for the Arts, Jubilee Arts, the YMCA, and other charitable organizations in Baltimore, Sarasota, and Nashville.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES HEALTH & FITNESS CHALLENGE

In 2016, the Orioles and Sarasota County Schools launched the Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge to encourage healthy lifestyles among middle school-aged children. Since its inception, more than 22,500 students have participated in the program.

The program was developed in partnership with Health Fit Powered by Sarasota Memorial to teach students about the importance of physical fitness, healthy eating, and tobacco-free living. During the six-week program, students in grades six through eight participate in a variety of health and fitness challenges led by Sarasota County Phys Ed teachers. The Challenge was expanded to include Oak Park School in 2017, where faculty adapted the curriculum for students with special needs.

Each week, students receive an Orioles-themed prize, and those who complete the entire six-week challenge receive two complimentary tickets to an Orioles Spring Training game and vouchers for complimentary concessions at the "Orioles Fit!" healthy-food stand at Ed Smith Stadium. Orioles players also make special appearances during Spring Training to help encourage the students.

BLESSINGS IN A BACKPACK

The Orioles' full active roster and coaching staff participated in an on-field packaging event for Blessings in a Backpack, working together to pack backpacks for food insecure children in the Baltimore community. They also wrote notes with words of encouragement to be included in each backpack. With this event, the club achieved 100 percent participation from the roster in community projects during 2022.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES (R.B.I) PROGRAM

As part of the Major League Baseball youth initiative, the Baltimore Orioles Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program has been inspiring underserved Baltimore City youth to play baseball and softball since 1989. In 2022, 471 players participated on 33 teams, playing a total of 284 games. The Orioles cover all costs that would be required from each team to participate in the league, including providing equipment, customized jerseys, umpires, all-star games, and off-the-field events and clinics.

Each RBI Division Championship team was recognized on the field prior to an Orioles game and was featured on the video board during the game. While on the field, they were presented with trophies and got their picture taken with Orioles manager Brandon Hyde and the Oriole Bird. The Orioles held a clinic for RBI players at James Mosher Field in May. Orioles pitcher Dillon Tate, first base coach Anthony Sanders, and former Orioles outfielder Al Bumbry taught players fielding, hitting, and baserunning.

PEPSI STRONGER TOGETHER

For the second consecutive year, the Orioles and Pepsi Stronger Together partnership empowered the next generation of baseball and softball players in Baltimore City through a variety of initiatives and programs. Through a series of strategic initiatives, including Jr. RBI and equipment collections, the Orioles and Pepsi Stronger Together gave Baltimore City youth the opportunity to play on improved fields, receive access to proper new and gently used equipment, and learn valuable life skills including teamwork, self-esteem, self-discipline, and leadership through the game of baseball and softball.

CARDBOARD TO LEATHER EQUIPMENT COLLECTION

As part of the Pepsi Stronger Together partnership, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates held two Cardboard to Leather collections at the ballpark during the 2022 season.

Overall, nearly 280 pieces of equipment were collected and distributed to youth in underserved neighborhoods of Baltimore City. They also sent a 20-foot shipping container of equipment to youth in countries where they don't have access to proper playing equipment.

ORIOLES FIELD REVITALIZATION

The Orioles Field Revitalization Project is designed to improve the field conditions of baseball and softball fields in Baltimore City, making them safe, playable, and inviting places for youth to enjoy the game.

In coordination with Baltimore City Recreation and Parks, Orioles Director of Field Operations Nicole Sherry, and other parties, the Orioles identified the 90-foot community field at Carroll Park as the site for the 2022 project. Members of the Orange & Black Gives Back Employee Volunteer Program, Pepsi staff, Baltimore City Recreation and Parks, and Oriole Advocates assisted with the finishing touches on the field by assisting with laying sod, painting fencing, and raking and lining the field, among other improvements.

Following the field's ribbon cutting, the Orioles held a clinic for youth baseball and softball players to learn and improve their skills.

ORIOLES JR. RBI PROGRAM

The Orioles sponsored three teams during the Jr. RBI season, where 146 players ages 4-12 participated in over 50 games during the 2022 season. The Orioles also provided 246 jerseys to players in the program. To celebrate the completion of the Jr. RBI season, the club hosted an end-of-season party prior to an Orioles game in July, where participants enjoyed a pre-game picnic and received a game ticket and a goodie bag.

BASEBALL FOR ALL

The Orioles are committed to helping children with mental and/or physical challenges enjoy baseball. Last year, the Orioles partnered with League of Dreams and the Oriole Advocates Challenger Baseball Program to host two different clinics for children with special needs.

Former Orioles took part in the clinics, teaching children how to play baseball through adaptive forms of the game by using larger and adapted equipment. The clinics included teaching the fundamentals of hitting, fielding, throwing, and baserunning. Participants were from local youth Challenger baseball leagues, county recreations programs, and community programs with the mission of providing all children with an opportunity to experience the joy of playing baseball.

PLAY BALL DAYS PRESENTED BY NIKE

Expanding upon Major League Baseball's Play Ball campaign, the Orioles hosted Play Ball Days, presented by Nike, at local schools, including Walter P. Carter Elementary/Middle School (Baltimore), Magnolia Elementary School (Harford County), Gaywood Elementary School (Prince George's County), and Glen Avenue Elementary School (Wicomico County). Youth baseball and softball players from ages 5-12 also took part in a clinic at Nymeo Field at Harry Grove Stadium, the home of the Frederick Keys, to learn about the fundamentals of the game. The events aimed to grow the game of baseball, inspire recreational play in underserved areas, and teach life lessons including teamwork, perseverance, and resilience. The Play Ball Days impacted more than 2,200 children.

ORANGE AND BLACK GIVES BACK

Each year, the Orioles employee and family volunteer program, Orange & Black Gives Back, completes regular service projects in the Birdland community. These efforts are focused on organizations that support holistic development for youth, as well as nonprofits that strengthen the community by addressing food insecurity and other economic and environmental obstacles.

Orange & Black Gives Back completed more than 16 in-person volunteer opportunities throughout 2022, for nearly 750 hours of service. Some of those projects included volunteering at Whitelock Farms, volunteering with League of Dreams, partnering with Prom Series to provide prom dresses to girls from Girls, Inc., shopping for and wrapping holiday gifts for families from The Arc Baltimore, and packaging and delivering meals to community members through The Maryland Food Bank and Meals on Wheels of Central Maryland.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique nonprofit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July of 1960, the Advocates are in their 60th year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball." Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section of the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Communications and Community Development Departments. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BRIAN EBEL MBA, LAT, ATC

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ebel enters his sixth season as the Orioles Head Athletic Trainer and his 39th year with the Orioles organization. He is just the fourth Head Athletic Trainer in Orioles history since the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1954.

Ebel began his career in 1985 when he served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Rookie League Bluefield Orioles during summer breaks from college. He was then promoted to Class-A Erie (1988), and Double-A Hagerstown (1989-91), Orioles Minor League Medical Coordinator (1992-96), and Orioles Assistant Major League Athletic Trainer (1996-2017) before being named Head Athletic Trainer in 2018.

Ebel is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University and holds an MBA from Johns Hopkins University. In March 2021, he received a faculty appointment to Johns Hopkins University as an Assistant Professor of Orthopedic Surgery. He is an active member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and served on their Executive Board as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative from 1999-2005. He is the Chairman of Major League Baseball's Electronic Medical Records (EMR) Committee and also serves on MLB's Concussion committee and Medical Advisory Board. He serves on the National Athletic Trainers' Association's (NATA) Scholarship Committee and is the Co-Chairman of the Maryland Athletic Trainers' Association's (MATA) Ethics Committee.

Ebel received his 20-year service award as a Major League Athletic Trainer by PBATS in 2017. Following the 2011 season, PBATS named Ebel and longtime Orioles Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year. In 2007, he was the Athletic Trainer for the American League All-Star team in San Francisco. He was also selected as the Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Star Tour of Taiwan following the 2011 season. Ebel was the recipient of PBATS President's Service Award in 2012 for his work on EMR. In January 2022, Ebel was the recipient of the Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award by NATA. He was inducted into the MATA Hall of Fame in May 2022.

Ebel is certified by NATA and is a licensed athletic trainer in Maryland, Florida, and Virginia. He is certified in Active Release Techniques (ART), Functional Movement Systems (FMS), and Dry Needling. He has authored or co-authored research papers on shoulder and elbow injuries, as well as catcher injuries. In May of 2012, he was awarded a United States patent for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of plantar fasciitis and heel pain.

Ebel grew up in Versailles, Ind., and has two sons: Brady and Brett. He resides in Baltimore.

MARK SHIRES ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Shires begins his sixth season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and his 25th year as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. He was named to the post in January of 2018 following 11 years as the Head Athletic Trainer for Triple-A Norfolk. While with the Tides, he was selected to represent the International League in the 2013 Triple-A All-Star Game and was twice named International League Athletic Trainer of the Year (2009 & 2011).

Prior to his tenure with Norfolk, Shires made stops at four levels of the Orioles farm system, including three years at Bowie (2004-06) and at Frederick (2001-03), one year at Delmarva (2000), and one season in the Gulf Coast League (1999). He also worked as an intern for Bowie in 1996-97 before graduating from West Chester University (PA) in 1998. He later completed his master's degree from California University of Pennsylvania in 2004.

He and his wife, Alison Gardiner, married in 2006 in a ceremony presided over by Scott McGregor. They reside in West Chester, Pa., with their son, Arthur John "AJ."

PATRICK WESLEY ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Wesley enters his sixth season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and his 20th season as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. He was named an Assistant Athletic Trainer in January of 2018 after spending the previous three seasons with Bowie.

Wesley joined the Orioles as an Athletic Training Intern at the minor league complex in Sarasota in 2003, and later served as an Athletic Training Intern at Morgan State University (MD) following the conclusion of the minor league season. He spent the 2004 season with Bluefield before joining Aberdeen for two years in 2005. He has also worked for Delmarva (2007-08), where he was named South Atlantic League Trainer of the year both seasons, as well as the Arizona Fall League (2009) and Frederick (2009-14). Wesley worked Major League Spring Training from 2011-17.

The McKendree University (IL) graduate has a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers' Association. He resides in Frederick, Md., with his wife Jessica and three children: Caleb, Chase, and Chloe.

CHRIS POOLE ATC

KYLE CORRICK ATC

MAJOR LEAGUE PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Corrick enters his fifth year in the organization and second as the Orioles Physical Therapist. He served as Rehabilitation Coordinator from 2019-21, working with players across all levels of the organization as they progressed through their rehabilitation programs.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as an intern with the Jacksonville Jaguars sports medicine staff while concurrently working on his post-baccalaureate degree in Athletic Training at the University of North Florida and serving as a staff Physical Therapist at Coltman & Baughman Physical Therapy in the Jacksonville area. Pre-dating his time in Jacksonville, Corrick worked as a Physical Therapist and clinic manager with Advanced Rehabilitation in Tampa, Florida, where he treated athletes at the amateur and professional ranks.

Corrick graduated from the University of Florida's Physical Therapy program in 2014 and received his post-baccalaureate bachelor's degree in Athletic Training in 2019 from the University of North Florida. He currently resides in Sarasota with his wife, Lacey, and their two children, McKenna and Elijah.

AQUILES TORREALBA ATC

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Torrealba enters his first season as the Orioles Massage Therapist after spending the past seven seasons in the San Francisco Giants organization as a Minor League Athletic Trainer (2016-22) and Latin American Medical Coordinator (2018-22).

In addition to his tenure with the Giants, Torrealba has also served as Infectious Disease Coordinator, COVID-19 for the Leones del Escogido of the Dominican Winter League (2020), as Head Athletic Trainer for the Charros de Guadalajara of the Mexican Winter League (2018-19), and as Head Athletic Trainer/ Strength Coach (2017-18) and Head Athletic Trainer (2016) for the Yaquis de Ciudad Obregón of the Mexican Winter League.

A native of San Mateo, Venezuela, Torrealba received his Associate of Arts, General Studies, from State College of Florida, Manatee-Sarasota. He received his Licenced Massage Therapist (LMT) certificate from Hillsborough Community College (FL) and his Athletic Trainer Certification (ATC) at Barry University (FL), where he was also an Exercise Physiologist major.

TREY WIEDMAN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Wiedman (weed-mehn) enters his second season on the Major League staff and fourth in the Orioles organization, after spending the 2020-21 seasons as Triple-A Norfolk's Strength and Conditioning Coach. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent eight seasons in the Houston Astros organization, most recently as the Major League Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach (2017-19). He also spent two seasons as Triple-A Fresno's Strength and Conditioning Coach (2015-16) and two seasons with Double-A Corpus Christi (2013-14). He began his professional career as Class-A Lexington's Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2012.

Wiedman received his master's degree in exercise science from A.T. Still University (MO) and his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Memphis (TN), where he was also a four-year letter winner on the baseball team. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC), and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). He is also studying to become a Registered Dietitian at the University of Houston.

CARLOS GONZÁLEZ

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

González enters his first season as the Orioles Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach after being named to the position ahead of the 2023 season.

Prior to joining the Orioles, González served as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Tampa Bay Rays from 2017-22, a position he also held with them during the 2010 season. From 2005-07, he served as a Flight Commander in the US Air Force.

A native of Murfreesboro, Tenn., González attended Middle Tennessee State University, where he obtained his Bachelor of Science in Exercise Science in 2004 and his Master of Science in Exercise Science in 2010. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

NICOLE SHERRY

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FIELD OPERATIONS

Sherry begins her first season as Senior Director of Field Operations after being promoted to the position in January of 2023. She spent the past two seasons as Director of Field Operations after serving as Orioles Head Groundskeeper for 14 seasons from 2007-20. The 2023 campaign marks Sherry's 20th season with the Orioles organization overall. From 2001-03, she served as the Orioles Assistant Head Groundskeeper before spending three seasons (2004-06) with the Double-A Trenton Thunder (New York Yankees).

She returned to the Orioles organization in November of 2006, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as the head groundskeeper with a Major League team. Sherry and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA), there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

Sherry was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post for the Trenton Thunder in February of 2004, and twice was runner-up for the Eastern League's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

In February of 2016, Sherry was named the recipient of the Mary Pickersgill Award for Women's Leadership in Business by the Star-Spangled Banner Flag House. Established in 2012, the award honors a woman who demonstrates leadership in her community, exemplifies innovation in her chosen field, and has the power to inspire others. She was also named the 2019 recipient of the prestigious Dick Ericson Founders' Award, which is awarded annually to a STMA member who effectively manages sports fields and their facility, exhibits the qualities of a true team leader, and who positively impacts the sports turf industry. Sherry, along with MLB and Discovery Education, has worked with local schools to introduce students to a variety of intriguing science and STEM concepts related to her job as Director of Field Operations.

A native of New Castle, Del., Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as the Assistant Head Groundskeeper.

Sherry resides in Eldersburg, Md., with her son, Tyson.

FRED TYLER

HOME CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Fred Tyler enters his 51st season with the Orioles and second as Home Clubhouse and Equipment Manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. He began his career as a bat boy in the visiting clubhouse in 1972, and since then, has served numerous roles, including Visiting Clubhouse Assistant, Orioles Clubhouse Assistant (1979-83), and Visiting Clubhouse Manager (1984-2021).

Tyler played baseball at Bel Air (MD) High School, Harford Community College, and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, Tyler was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen High School right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr.

Tyler lives in Arnold, Md., with his wife, Debbie. The couple has a son, Sean Duffy Tyler. Tyler is one of 11 children, including his older brother Jim, who serves as the Umpires' Attendant.

JIM TYLER

UMPIRES' ATTENDANT

Jim Tyler begins his 62nd year working for the Orioles and his 11th season as the Umpires' Attendant. Tyler ran the home clubhouse from 1979 to 2012 after serving seven years as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager. He began working in the Orioles clubhouse in 1962.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Tyler is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also worked for the Orioles in the past. Tyler has two children: Lauren and Joshua, and three grandchildren: Luke, Tessa, and Jack.

ANDREW GUINART

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Guinart (gin-NART) begins his second season as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. He has worked in the Orioles home clubhouse during Spring Training and the regular season since 2012 after initially starting as a bat boy. He joined the organization in 2010 after the relocation of Spring Training facilities to his hometown of Sarasota, Fla., where he worked in the Major League clubhouse during Spring Training and would assist with minor league clubhouse operations during the summer months. Guinart began working in professional baseball in 2007 at the age of 14 with the Cincinnati Reds during their Major League Spring Training and Class-A season.

Guinart was born and raised in Sarasota, Fla., with his parents, Oscar and Lisa, and two older brothers, Daniel and David. He graduated high school from the Sarasota Military Academy. Guinart currently resides in Baltimore City.

BEN CARHART

BULLPEN CATCHER

Carhart enters his fourth season as the Orioles Bullpen Catcher. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons as an Assistant Coach with the Cubs Double-A affiliate in Tennessee. He started his post-playing career in 2017 as the Chicago Cubs Rehab Coach.

Carhart was selected in the 35th round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Stetson University (FL). A career .270 hitter in the minors, he spent five seasons in the Chicago Cubs farm system as a player, appearing in 372 career games and reaching Triple-A in 2016.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Carhart attended Palm Beach Gardens High School in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. He was inducted into the Palm Beach Gardens High School Hall of Fame in March 2023. Engaged, fiancée's name is Allie.

Married, wife's name is Mollie. The couple began dating during their junior year of high school.

Has an English cream retriever named Maui Blue (mr.mauiblue on Instagram).

He and Mollie enjoy hiking and will bring Maui with them.

Wore No. 56 as a rookie. He did not pick it but it represented his mom's birthday, May 6.

Attended New Mexico State University, where he played with current teammate Joey Ortiz. Graduated from Millennium (AZ) HS.

Enjoys traveling. He and his wife have gone to Mexico and Hawaii.

Loves watching TV. Some of his favorite shows are "Game of Thrones," "New Girl," "Schitt's Creek," and "Stranger Things."

Grew up in Oregon and played in tournaments against current teammate Adley Rutschman. Kyle was the starting pitcher when Adley made his MLB debut.

Growing up, played catcher, outfield, and first base before making the transition to pitching.

Played football growing up. Began as a quarterback but transitioned to wide receiver as a junior in high school.

Graduated from Valdosta (GA) HS. Also attended Houston County (GA) HS as a sophomore and junior.

Played on a high school state baseball championship team with current NFL and former University of Georgia quarterback Jake Fromm.

In addition to baseball, played football and basketball growing up. Could dunk a basketball from a flat-footed, standing position when he was a freshman in high school.

Changed his jersey number to 24 prior to the 2023 season because Kobe Bryant was his favorite basketball player and he tries to live by the "Mamba Mentality."

Participated in the 2023 and 2020 Birdland Caravan.

Is good friends with Grayson Rodriguez, who was in the stands at Tropicana Field for DL's Major League debut.

Has a tattoo honoring the memory of his late friend and Valdosta Wildcat teammate, Colton Shaw, who passed away in 2015.

Cut his long hair in February 2023 and plans to donate it to Wigs and Wishes, an organization that grants wigs to people battling cancer.

Married, wife's name is Samantha. The couple has two sons, Levi and Hayden.

Has a dog named Luna.

Enjoys hunting in the offseason.

Austin hit a home run at the first Spring Training game his son, Levi, went to in 2021 and the Hays family kept the ball.

His go-to karaoke song is Friends in Low Places by Garth Brooks.

If he could trade places with anyone it would be his wife so he could see what he is like from her point of view.

Is scared of heights.

Is from the same hometown as former Oriole Luke Scott.

Attended Jacksonville University (FL) and Spruce Creek (FL) HS.

Was teammates with current Oriole Mike Baumann in college at Jacksonville (2015-16).

Participated in the 2023 and 2020 Birdland Caravan.

Does not wear batting gloves because he would go through them quickly when he was little and didn't want his mom to have to keep buying new ones.

His dad built a baseball field behind their house when Gunnar was growing up.

Used his signing bonus to build a batting cage on his parents' property.

Is good friends with teammates Adley Rutschman, Kyle Stowers, and Terrin Vavra.

When he first got called up to the majors, his helmet kept flying off when he took off from the batter's box.

Attended John T. Morgan (AL) Academy. Named the Gatorade Alabama Baseball Player of the Year in 2019.

In high school, was a three-year letter winner in basketball (forward) and a one-year letter winner in football (quarterback).

During the COVID shutdown, trained at his old high school field.

Before signing with the Orioles, committed to Auburn University (AL), where his older brother, Jackson, played.

One of his favorite things about being home is his mom's cooking.

In the offseason, helps train his younger brother, Cade, who also plays baseball.

His whole family is Auburn Tigers fans but his mom grew up an Alabama fan.

Likes country and rock music. Some of his favorite artists are Mötley Crüe and Elvis.

Enjoys hunting in the offseason.

Has a German Wirehaired Pointer named Chief that he got this offseason.

Married, wife's name is Caroline. The couple has a son, McCoy.

His dad, Alan, passed away from pancreatic cancer in August 2020.

His wife, Caroline, was a professional soccer goalie and coached at Tulsa University (OK).

Wears number 47 because his dad's birthday is on the 4th and his mom's is on the 7th.

His younger brother, Jake, was drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 22nd round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft.

Made a LinkedIn account in 2019 because he didn't think he would make it in baseball. Also was a substitute teacher the offseason one year.

Attended Gardner-Edgerton (KS) HS, Fort Scott Community College (KS), and West Virginia University.

His go-to karaoke song is "Take Me Home, Country Roads" by John Denver.

Is a huge Kansas City Chiefs fan.

Enjoys coffee; had his own specialty blend at Ceremony Coffee in 2021.

Does not consider himself a good cook, but loves to grill out and barbecue.

Participated in the 2023 Birdland Caravan.

2022 NOTES

- Made his second straight Opening Day start on 4/8 at TB; became the first Orioles pitcher to start back-to-back Opening Days since RHP Chris Tillman started three straight from 2014-16, the second lefty to do so since Dave McNally started three consecutive from 1969-71, and the fourth O's left-hander to start multiple Opening Days in team history (since 1954) along with McNally, Steve Barber (1963, 65-66), and Mike Flanagan (1978, 86)
- Left his second start of the season on 4/13 vs. MIL with left forearm tightness; placed on the 10-day Injured List with a left elbow sprain on 4/14 and transferred to the 60-day Injured List with a left elbow strain on 4/17

Married his wife, Taylor, in February 2023.

Has been with his wife since their sophomore year of high school. The two met when Ryan asked her for help in math.

Built a house together with his now-wife in Florida prior to the 2022 season.

Has a dog named Charli.

Wears a rubber bracelet on his wrist that says "Rest in Peace Austin" for Austin Ekern, his high school football teammate; Austin was hit and killed by a pickup truck in 2017 and Ryan has worn the bracelet every day since.

Has his own karaoke machine; his go-to songs are "I Miss You" by Blink-182, "Walking in Memphis" by March Cohn, and "Piano Man" by Billy Joel.

Enjoys playing Call of Duty.

Attended Paul J. Hagerty (FL) HS.

Had his No. 5 High School baseball jersey retired by the Hagerty baseball team on February 6, 2021.

Became known for staying late after games and signing autographs for fans during the 2021 season.

Drinks a Red Bull before games and will get McDonald's if he's in a slump.

In the offseason he bowls with his friends every Thursday night, with the losers picking up the winners' tabs.

Participated in the 2023 and 2020 Birdland Caravan.

2022 NOTES

- Made his second consecutive Opening Day roster
- Set career highs in games (145), at-bats (555), hits (139), doubles (28), and walks (43) and tied career bests in triples (1), hit-by-pitches (4), and stolen bases (4)
- Ranked second on the Orioles in hits, RBI (85), and home runs (22) and was third in total bases (235)
- Homered twice on 6/15 at TOR to become the fastest homegrown player in O's history to hit 50 career home runs (231 games); also hit two home runs on 5/5 vs. MIN and 9/3 vs. OAK
- Tied for second among AL first basemen and tied for fourth among MLB first basemen with three Outs Above Average, per Statcast; finished 2021 with -10 OAA (-6 in LF, -4 at 1B)

- The -.086 differential between his slugging (.423) and xSLG (.509) was the largest negative difference in MLB, per Statcast; he also had the largest margin (-.046) in MLB between wOBA (.316) and xwOBA (.362)
- Batted .274/.327/.440 (76-for-277) with 13 doubles, 11 homers, 29 runs scored, 49 RBI, 23 walks, and two stolen bases in 74 home games compared to .227/.284/.406 (63-for-278) with 15 doubles, one triple, 11 homers, 33 runs, 36 RBI, 20 walks, four hit-by-pitches, and two stolen bases in 71 games on the road

Married his wife, Erika, in November 2022.

Likes to watch Anime and his 2021 All-Star Game red carpet look was inspired by it.

Can juggle.

Attended Brookwood (GA) HS, Louisburg College (NC), and Campbell University (NC).

Enjoys playing video games.

Majored in business administration in college and enjoys marketing and math. Thinks he would pursue engineering if not playing professional baseball.

His nickname is "parking lot Ced" because he would hit home runs into the parking lot in the minors.

Has a dog named Lilo.

Participated in the 2023 and 2020 Birdland Caravan.

Is good friends with teammate Austin Hays.

Has a devoted group of fans called "The Fantanders" who are hundreds of scouts from the UK who sat behind him in left field at Oriole Park during a game in 2019.

Did not watch a lot of baseball growing up, but is a fan of Venezuelan players Asdrubal Cabrera, Carlos Carrasco, and José Altuve.

Began learning to play the harp during the COVID-19 shutdown.

When he goes home, Sundays are his family day when his whole family gets together and watches movies.

He is close with his family and his parents attend most of the games.

2022 NOTES

- Made his fourth career Opening Day roster and spent most of the season on the active roster

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only Major Leaguer to hit a home run in his last Major League at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960, at Fenway Park. Two former Orioles also accomplished this feat. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor is one of 32 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (No. 12 overall), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980. In addition to McGregor, first round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their careers include Josh Beckett, Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, R.A. Dickey, Rich Dotson, Dwight Gooden, Gio Gonzalez, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Ian Kennedy, Clayton Kershaw, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Mike Mussina, Mike Norris, Rick Porcello, David Price, J.R. Richard, C.C. Sabathia, Max Scherzer, Rick Sutcliffe, Bill Swift, Justin Verlander, Adam Wainwright, Jered Weaver, Bob Welch, and Barry Zito.

- Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 13 pitchers in Major League history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the fifth inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

- Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, the only reliever to fan 11 batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix (June 15, 1964) and Dave Vineyard (September 7, 1964) share the Orioles' regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever, also with 11.

- Al Bumbry is one of 14 American League players to hit three triples in one game. He did so on September 22, 1973, at Milwaukee.

- Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that three straight seasons since 1931.

Got engaged to his fiancé, Melissa, in January 2023.

Has two tattoos on his left forearm, one is the anniversary of his birth mom's death, the other is an outdoor scene that he feels represents his life and what he's been through.

Has a mini bernedoodle named Buckley.

Grew eight inches the summer between his sophomore and junior year of high school.

Attended California State University San Bernandino and Yucaipa (CA) HS.

Enjoys taking photos and editing videos. Has a photography Instagram - @twellsmedia

If he could pick anyone to play him in a movie about his life he would pick Ashton Kutcher or Channing Tatum.

He enjoys golfing, his handicap hovers around 10. His brother is working toward becoming a golf pro, and is a scratch golfer.

His go-to food to make for a pot luck is a dip with Hormel chilli and cream cheese in a crock pot.

2022 NOTES

- Made the Opening Day roster for the second year in a row; spent time on the Injured List from 7/28-9/6 (lower left side discomfort) and 9/23 to the end of the season (right shoulder inflammation)
- Set career highs in starts (23), wins (7), innings pitched (103.2), and strikeouts (76); the 23 starts were the most in his professional career
- Tied for second on the O's in starts with Kyle Bradish, trailing only Jordan Lyles (32)
- Threw less than 5.0 innings in 11 of 23 starts; had not thrown as a starter since 2018 in the minor leagues in the Twins system; completed at least 5.0 innings in seven of eight starts from 5/25-7/3
- Started the Orioles' third game of the season on 4/10 at TB, marking his first career start
- Allowed three-or-fewer earned runs in 17 straight starts from 4/16-7/17, tied for the third-longest such stretch in MLB during the season; since 1994, the only O's starter with a longer stretch is Chris Tillman (20, 6/10-9/20/14)
- Did not walk a batter in five consecutive starts from 4/21-5/15, becoming the only O's starter in team history (since 1954) to do so
- Won five straight games from 6/11-7/3, tied for the fifth-longest streak and one of 15 MLB pitchers to do so last season; marked the 56th occurrence (29th player) in O's history to win five-or-more outings in a row in a one season and first since Chris Tillman (5, 4/27-5/18/16)
- Struck out a career-high seven batters on 7/3 at MIN (6.0 IP, 3 H, R, ER, BB, 7 K); the win was the start of Baltimore's 10-game winning streak through 7/13
- Went 4-0 with a 2.42 ERA (7 ER/26.0 IP) in five June starts, ranked 12th in the AL during the month (min. 25.0 IP); limited opponents to a .174 batting average (16-for-92)
- Held left-handed batters to a .193/.224/.341 (34-for-176) slash line; the OBP was the third-lowest and the AVG was the 12th-lowest in MLB (min. 150 PA)
- Made one rehab appearance with High-A Aberdeen on 9/2 vs. Hickory (2.1 IP, H, R, ER, 3 K)

Grew up an Orioles fan, the first jersey he had was an Adam Jones USA Baseball jersey.

His favorite ice cream is mint chocolate chip. He also makes a breakfast casserole every year on Christmas for his family.

Wanted to be an architect when he was younger.

Did not know he was going to make the 2021 Opening Day roster out of Spring Training, so he lived with his parents because he didn't have an apartment in Baltimore.

Attended the University of Mt. Olive (NC), Towson University (MD), and Loyola Blakefield (MD) HS.

Is the youngest of five, has three sisters and a brother.

Is the 28th Maryland-born player to play for the Orioles. His 31 appearances rank 19th on that list.

2022 NOTES

- Made his second straight Opening Day roster; had three stints on the big league roster after being optioned to Triple-A Norfolk on 6/16, 7/10, and 9/6; recalled from the Tides on 7/9, and 9/5
- Started the Orioles fourth game of the season and home opener on 4/11 vs. MIL (4.0 IP, 3 H, 2 BB, 4 K); became the fourth Maryland native to start the O's first home game, joining Steve Barber (1964 and 1965), Tom Phoebus (1968), and Dave Johnson (1990) and the first in the 30-year history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards
- Began the season with 14.0 scoreless innings before allowing his first run in the sixth inning on 4/22 at LAA; marked the fourth time in team history (since 1954) that an O's starter opened the season with a scoreless streak of at least 14.0 innings and the first since Orioles legend and Hall of Famer Jim Palmer in 1978
- Threw a career-high 6.1 innings on 5/24 at NYY
- Induced 12 double plays through 6/15, tied for most in the majors with STL's Dakota Hudson during that time
- Tied an O's record by allowing five home runs on 5/29 at BOS, joining Jeremy Hellickson (8/18/17 vs. LAA), Mike Mussina (7/1/94 vs. CAL), Jim Palmer (6/22/77 vs. BOS), and Don Larsen (7/19/54 [G2] at BOS); also surrendered four home runs on 5/24 at NYY, tying an MLB record with nine home runs allowed in back-to-back outings with Brooklyn's Hollis Thurston from 8/7(G2)-8/13(G1)/32; became the fifth pitcher in MLB history to yield at least four homers in back-to-back games, joining ARI's Dan Haren (5/21-27/10), CLE's Carl Pavano (7/22-27/09), CIN's Aaron Harang (8/31-9/6/04) and BOS' Pedro Martínez (6/5-10/98)
- Made two relief appearances - 7/9 vs. LAA (1.0 IP, 2 H) and 9/5 (G2) vs. TOR (6.0 IP, 8 H, 5 R, 5 ER, 3 HR, BB, 3 K); recalled between games on 9/5 after Jordan Lyles was scratched from his game two start
- Threw 7.2 scoreless innings on three hits with eight strikeouts on 8/30 vs. Lehigh Valley, his longest outing since a 9.0-inning complete game shutout for Double-A Bowie on 6/18/19 at Hartford; also completed 7.0 innings for the Tides on 7/3 vs. Gwinnett

- Spent the majority of the season with Triple-A Toledo but appeared in 21 games with the Tigers
- Successful in both of his stolen base attempts on the season and is now 9-for-9 in his career; according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Cameron is the second Tigers player to debut since 1920 to begin his career with nine-plus stolen bases without being caught, along with Hub Walker who stole 10 straight bases to start his career in 1931
- Earned Major League Baseball's Electric Play of the Week for his defensive play on 5/22 at CLE, robbing a two-run homer from Amed Rosario in center field and turning it into a double play to end the fifth inning
- Hit a go-ahead, two-run home run in the bottom of the eighth inning on 6/2 vs. MIN; of his five career home runs, three have been game-tying or go-ahead home runs in the eighth inning-or-later
- Went 2-for-4 with a double, a triple, and two RBI on 6/8 at PIT, his first career game with multiple extra-base hits and multiple RBI
- On the Injured List from 6/10-26

2022 IN REVIEW

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

AND THAT'S A WRAP: The Orioles completed the 2022 season with an 83-79 record, finishing in fourth place in the AL East...The O's secured a winning season for the first time since 2016 (89-73)...The Birds eclipsed their win total from each of the previous four full seasons: 2021 (52-110), 2019 (54-108), 2018 (47-115), and 2017 (75-87)...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 2022 Orioles became the first team since 1900 to win at least 77 games in a season after losing 110+ games the previous year and only the third team in MLB history to finish with a .500-or-better record after losing 110+ games the prior campaign, joining the 1899 St. Louis Perfectos (39-111 in 1898 to 84-67) and the 1890 Louisville Colonels (27-111 in 1889 to 87-43)...The O's became the first team in MLB history to win more than 70 games after finishing each of the previous three full seasons (150+ G) with 100+ losses.

RISING TIDE: The Orioles posted a .512 winning percentage, up .191 points from the 2021 season's mark of .321; according to the Elias Sports Bureau, that is the largest increase in winning percentage from 2021 to 2022, ahead of the New York Mets, who posted a .148 increase from .475 to .623, and the Arizona Diamondbacks with a .136 increase from .321 to .457...It is the largest such increase for any MLB team since the Tampa Bay Rays increased .192 from 2007 (.407) to 2008 (.599)...The 2022 season marked the second-largest winning percentage increase in Orioles history (since 1954) behind a .202 jump from 1988 (.335) to 1989 (.537).

FEELS GOOD TO BE HOME: The Orioles went 45-36 (.556) at home, the eighth-best home winning percentage in the AL and 14th-best in MLB; marked their most wins and best winning percentage at home since they went 46-35 (.568) in 2017...The O's improved their home winning percentage by .223 points from 2021 (.333) to 2022, the largest increase in team history (since 1954).

O THE PLACES YOU'LL GO: The Orioles went 38-43 (.469) on the road, their best road record since going 39-42 (.481) in 2016... They hit 92 of their 171 home runs on the road, the sixth-most in the AL and 13th-most in MLB; marked Baltimore's most road home runs in a season since 2019 (99) and the first time since 2005 that the O's hit more home runs on the road than they did at home (93 at home, 96 on the road).

AL BEAST: The Orioles went 34-42 (.447) against AL East foes, their most wins and best winning percentage against the division since going 37-39 (.487) in 2017...The Orioles went 20-18 against the division at home and 14-24 on the road; marked the first time since 2017 (20-18) that the O's had a winning record against the AL East at home.

The O's dropped the season series to each AL East opponent: Boston Red Sox (9-10), New York Yankees (7-12), Tampa Bay Rays (9-10), and Toronto Blue Jays (9-10), but the season series against the Red Sox, Rays, and Blue Jays were not decided until the final game of each.

DOWN TO THE WIRE: The Orioles were the final AL team to be eliminated from Postseason contention when the Seattle Mariners clinched the third Wild Card berth on September 30...The O's finished with the seventh-best record in the AL and 14th-best in MLB; the only team with a better record that did not make the Postseason was the Milwaukee Brewers (86-76).

GOING STREAKING: The Orioles won 10 games in a row from July 3-13, their first double-digit winning streak in a single season since winning 13 straight from September 7-22, 1999...It was the fourth-longest winning streak by an AL team in 2022 and sixth-longest in MLB...During the streak, the O's outscored their opponents 52-30 (+22), posted a 2.93 ERA (30 ER/92.0 IP) with 93 strikeouts (9.09 K/9), and slashed .266/.340/.409 (91-for-342) with 30 extra-base hits (20-2B, 3B, 9 HR).

ALLOW ME TO REINTRODUCE MYSELF: The Orioles used a total of 58 players (33 pitchers and 25 position players)...The 58 players used by the O's were tied with the 2019 team for the second-most in club history (since 1954), trailing only the 62 players (39 pitchers and 23 position players) who suited up for the Birds in 2021.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: 13 players made their Major League debuts for the O's (7 pitchers and 6 position players)...10 of the players who made their debuts finished the season on Baltimore's 40-man roster.

YOUNG AT HEART: The Orioles were one of the youngest teams in the majors; according to Baseball Reference, their average batter age of 27.0 years was tied for the fifth-youngest in the majors and was below the league average of 28.2 years, while their average pitcher age of 27.7 years was the seventh-youngest in the majors and was below the league average of 28.8 years.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN: The Orioles opened the 2022 season with 14 pitchers and 14 position players on their roster...Eight players made their first career Opening Day roster: (Keegan Akin, Bryan Baker, Mike Baumann, Félix Bautista, Anthony Bemboom, Kelvin Gutiérrez, Joey Krehbiel, and Ryan McKenna), along with seven other players who were not on the 2021 Orioles Opening Day roster (Robinson Chirinos, Jordan Lyles, Jorge Mateo, Rougned Odor, Chris Owings, Cionel Pérez, and DJ Stewart).

Stewart was on Baltimore's Injured List to open the 2021 season.

Chirinos was the oldest on the roster to open the season (37 years, 307 days) and the only player born in the 1980s; Ryan Mountcastle was the youngest (25 years, 49 days).

PITCHER'S PARK: According to ESPN Park Factors, Oriole Park at Camden Yards had the sixth-lowest home run Park Factor in MLB in 2022 at 0.810; Park Factor compares the rate of stats at home compared to on the road, with a rate higher than 1.000 favoring hitters, and a rate below 1.000 favoring pitchers...In 2021, Oriole Park had the highest home run Park Factor in MLB at 1.574.

There were 151 home runs hit at Oriole Park in 2022 (79 by Orioles and 72 by opponents), the second-fewest in a full season in ballpark history (since 1992), ahead of only the 1992 season with 144 (75 by Orioles and 69 by opponents). In 2021, 277 home runs were hit at Oriole Park (122 by Orioles and 155 by opponents), the second-most in ballpark history, behind only the 2019 season with 289 long balls (114 by Orioles and 175 by opponents).

OUT OF LEFT FIELD: Prior to the 2022 season, the Orioles renovated the outfield wall from the left field corner to the bullpens in left-center field...Enhancements included raising the wall height from 7 ft., 4 inches to 13 ft. and the following new dimensions from home plate:

Foul Pole - Previous: 333 ft; New: 333 ft (didn't change).
LF Corner - Previous: 364 ft; New: 384 ft.
Elrod's Corner - Previous: 364 ft; New: 398 ft.
O's Bullpen - Previous: 376 ft; New: 376 ft (didn't change).

ORIOLES MAGIC: The Orioles won nine walk-offs in 2022, tied for third in the AL and fifth in MLB; marked Baltimore's most walk-off wins since they had 12 in 2017...The Orioles won back-to-back games via walk-off twice during the 2022 campaign: May 19-20 and July 4-5; prior to the 2022 season, the last time the O's had won back-to-back walk-offs was June 6-7, 2017 vs. Pittsburgh.

The O's won consecutive games via walk-off home run on May 19 vs. New York-AL (Anthony Santander) and May 20 vs. Tampa Bay (Rougned Odor), the first time the O's hit walk-off homers in back-to-back games since August 14-15, 2015 vs. Oakland (Manny Machado and Chris Davis).

I GOT FIVE ON IT: O's batters hit five home runs in a game six times in 2022, going 6-0 in those games: May 5 vs. Minnesota, June 7 vs. Chicago-NL, June 27 at Seattle, August 19 vs. Boston, September 3 vs. Oakland, and September 26 at Boston...Baltimore's six games with at least five homers were tied with the Houston Astros for the most in MLB in 2022 and tied with the 1996 O's for second-most in club history (since 1954), trailing only the 2016 squad (7 G)...The Orioles have hit at least five home runs in a game 72 times in team history, going 64-8 in those games.

Five different O's batters (Austin Hays, Trey Mancini, Jorge Mateo, Cedric Mullins, Ramón Urías) homered on June 7 vs. Chicago-NL, their most in a single game since also having five different batters homer on August 6, 2017 (Chris Davis, Manny Machado, Mancini, Joey Rickard, Jonathan Schoop).

SHUT OUT THE NOISE: The Orioles tallied 15 shutouts, the fifth-most in the AL and tied for seventh-most in MLB...The 15 shutouts marked Baltimore's most since the 1992 team had 16; the single-season franchise record (since 1954) is 21 shutouts in 1961...The Orioles had 11 total shutouts in 384 games from 2019-21.

The Orioles won back-to-back shutouts three times in 2022: September 22-23 vs. Houston, August 31 to September 1 at Cleveland, and June 22 vs. Washington to June 23 at Chicago-AL.

According to MLB.com's Sarah Langs (@SlangsOnSports), the last time the O's recorded back-to-back shutouts three times in a season was 2012.

WON-O: The O's won four games by a score of 1-0: April 20 at Oakland, June 17 vs. Tampa Bay, July 9 vs. Los Angeles-AL, and August 5 vs. Pittsburgh...Their four 1-0 wins ranked tied for first in MLB with the St. Louis Cardinals and were Baltimore's most such wins since the 1983 team also had four...Entering 2022, the last 1-0 Orioles victory had been on July 14, 2018 vs. Texas, and the last 1-0 win on the road had been June 6, 2018 at New York-NL...Since 2000, the O's have won 22 games by a score of 1-0.

CLOSE CONTACT: The Orioles had 83 games decided by two runs or fewer, the fifth-most in the AL and ninth-most in MLB...The O's went 43-40 (.518) in those games, tied for the fifth-most wins in such games in the AL and sixth-most in MLB...In 2021, the Orioles played 63 games decided by two runs or fewer, tied for the fewest in MLB; they finished the 2021 season with a 24-39 record in those games, the second-fewest wins in MLB.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

SUMMER SURGE: The Orioles went 17-10 in August, their first month with at least 17 wins since August 2017 (17-12); Baltimore outscored opponents 118-97 (+21) during the month...The O's recorded three consecutive winning months after going 14-12 in June (their first winning month since August 2017), 16-9 in July, and 17-10 in August, the first time the O's had done that since April (14-9), May (14-13), and June (19-9) of 2016...The Birds won at least 16 games in back-to-back months (July and August) for the first time since June (16-12), July (17-8), August (19-9), and September (17-10) of 2014.

GOOD COMPANY: Adley Rutschman slashed .254/.362/.445 (101-for-398) with 35 doubles, one triple, 13 home runs, 70 runs scored, 42 RBI, 65 walks, and an .806 OPS in 113 games during his rookie campaign after having his contract selected and making his MLB debut on May 21.

He led the O's and ranked tied for first among MLB rookies with 5.3 fWAR, per FanGraphs.

His 5.3 fWAR is the third-best by a rookie catcher in MLB history, trailing only Los Angeles-NL's Mike Piazza (7.4, 1993) and Boston's Carlton Fisk (6.6, 1972); it is the second-best by an O's rookie in franchise history (since 1954), trailing only Bobby Grich (5.4, 1972).

His 35 doubles are the most by an Orioles rookie in a single season in franchise history, surpassing the mark of 32 set by Orioles Legend and Hall of Famer Cal Ripken, Jr. in 1982; they are also the most by a primary O's catcher in a single season, ahead of Javy López with 33 in 2004.

His 65 walks are the fourth-most by an O's rookie, trailing Curt Blefary (88, 1965), Ron Hansen (69, 1960), and Jim Gentile (68, 1960); Blefary, Hansen, and Gentile each appeared in at least 138 games.

He led the O's in doubles and walks, ranked third in runs scored, fifth in extra-base hits (49), and sixth in total bases (177); among O's batters with at least 400 plate appearances, he led the team in on-base percentage and OPS and ranked second in slugging percentage.

He led AL rookies in doubles, ranked second in walks, third in extra-base hits, fifth in runs scored, sixth in home runs, seventh in total bases, seventh in hits, and tied for eighth in RBI; among AL rookies with at least 400 plate appearances, he ranked second in on-base percentage, slugging percentage, and OPS.

TONY TATERS: Anthony Santander led the team and MLB switch hitters with a career-high 33 home runs, which also ranked tied for fifth in the AL; marked the most home runs by an O's switch hitter since Orioles Legend and Hall of Famer Eddie Murray hit 33 in 1983...Santander also led the O's in RBI (89), extra-base hits (57), and slugging percentage (.455).

HOMER HAPPY: Anthony Santander homered from both sides of the plate in a game four times in 2022, an O's franchise record (since 1954) and tied with San Diego's Ken Caminiti (1996) for the MLB single-season record...His five total multi-homer games led the O's, ranked tied for third in the AL, and tied for fourth in MLB; marked the most multi-home run games by an O's batter since Manny Machado had also had five in 2018.

STEADY CEDDY: Cedric Mullins became the first O's player with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 doubles since Manny Machado and Jonathan Schoop from 2016-17...He became the fourth player in O's history (since 1954) with back-to-back seasons with at least 30 stolen bases, and first since Brian Roberts did so in four seasons from 2006-09...Mullins is one of three players in O's history to record at least 50 extra-base hits (52) and 30 stolen bases (34) in two separate seasons, along with Roberts and Brady Anderson.

DYNAMIC DUO: Jorge Mateo (35) and Cedric Mullins (34) finished first and second in the AL in stolen bases, the first time teammates have paced their respective league in steals since the 1992 Montreal Expos (Marquis Grissom, 78 & Delino DeShields, 46) and the first time in the AL since the 1971 Kansas City Royals (Amos Otis, 52 & Freddie Patek, 49); marked the first time in O's history (since 1954) that teammates finished first and second in the league in stolen bases...No other MLB team had multiple players with at least 30 steals in 2022...The last team to have two players with 30 stolen bases each was the 2018 Royals (Whit Merrifield & Adalberto Mondesí), and the last pair of O's teammates to each swipe 30 bags in a season was Corey Patterson and Brian Roberts, who did so during the 2006 and 2007 campaigns.

NO-DOUBTER: On June 7 vs. Chicago-NL, Austin Hays connected on a solo home run off Alec Mills in the fifth inning that landed in the second deck in left field; marked the seventh second-deck home run in Oriole Park history and the fourth by an O's batter; prior to Hays, the last batter to reach the second deck at Oriole Park was Maikel Franco on June 8, 2021 vs. New York-NL off Robert Gsellman.

According to Statcast, Hays' home run traveled 464 feet, a career-high by 38 feet; it's the sixth-longest home run by an O's batter in the Statcast era (since 2015) and the longest home run by an Oriole since Keon Broxton tagged a 474-foot long ball on May 24, 2019 at Colorado.

Hays' home run had a hang time of 6.85 seconds, the longest hang time on an Orioles home run in the Statcast era, surpassing the 6.73-second hang time of Renato Núñez's home run on July 20, 2019 vs. Boston off Rick Porcello; marked the sixth-longest hang time on a home run in MLB in 2022.

SCRATCH OUT ANOTHER ONE FOR THE BOYS: Jordan Lyles tossed his second career complete game on September 21 vs. Detroit, allowing one run on three hits (one home run) with six strikeouts...His only other complete game came on September 30, 2012 at Milwaukee while with Houston (9.0 IP, 4 H, 0 R, BB, 3 K)...Marked the first complete game thrown by an Oriole since John Means no-hit the Seattle Mariners at T-Mobile Park on May 5, 2021, the first complete game by an O's right-hander since Alex Cobb on August 18, 2018 at Cleveland, and the first complete game by an O's pitcher at Oriole Park since Dylan Bundy on August 29, 2017 vs. Seattle...Lyles threw 94 pitches, the fewest pitches needed to navigate a nine-inning complete game by an Orioles hurler since Sidney Ponson threw only 88 on May 20, 2004 vs. Tampa Bay.

Lyles led the O's and ranked 14th in the AL with 179.0 innings, the most by an O's pitcher since Kevin Gausman (186.2 IP) in 2017.

He also led the O's with 13 quality starts, the most by a Baltimore hurler since Dylan Bundy and Alex Cobb (15 QS) and Andrew Cashner (13 QS) in 2018.

His 32 starts led the O's and ranked tied for third in the AL and tied for fifth in MLB; marked the most starts by an O's pitcher since Kevin Gausman (34 GS) and Wade Miley (32 GS) in 2017.

HE'S A BRAD MAN: Kyle Bradish recorded two double-digit strikeout games in his rookie campaign, fanning 11 Cardinals batters on May 10 at St. Louis and striking out 10 Astros on September 22 vs. Houston; he was the only O's pitcher with a double-digit strikeout performance in 2022...On May 10 at St. Louis, he became only the second pitcher in MLB history to have an outing with 11+ strikeouts and no walks in one of his first three career starts, joining Stephen Strasburg on June 8, 2010 for Washington vs. Pittsburgh (14 K)...On September 22 vs. Houston, he pitched a career-high 8.2 scoreless innings, retiring the first 17 Astros he faced and allowing only two hits, becoming the first rookie in O's history (since 1954) with 10 strikeouts, zero walks, and zero runs allowed in a game; his Baseball Reference game score of 90 was the highest by an O's pitcher since John Means had a game score of 99 in his no-hitter against the Seattle Mariners at T-Mobile Park on May 5, 2021, and tied for the seventh-best in Oriole Park history.

YOU COMPLETE ME: Dean Kremer tossed his first career shutout and complete game on September 23 vs. Houston...He allowed four hits and two walks with six strikeouts over a career-high 9.0 innings...Marked the first shutout by an O's pitcher since John Means threw a no-hitter on May 5, 2021 at Seattle...Kremer was one of 16 pitchers in MLB to throw a shutout in 2022...Joined Jordan Lyles (9/21 vs. DET) as the only O's pitchers with a complete game in 2022.

GATORADE SHOWERS FOR THE STARTERS: Jordan Lyles and Kyle Bradish became the first pair of Orioles hurlers with outings of at least 8.0 innings in back-to-back games (9/21-22) since Chris Tillman and Scott Feldman on July 21-22, 2013...Per ESPN Stats & Info, Lyles, Bradish, and Dean Kremer (9/21-23) were the first trio of O's pitchers to toss at least 8.2 innings in three consecutive games since Mike Mussina, Scott Erickson, and Kevin Brown from September 26-29, 1995.

SEEING TRIPLE: The Orioles turned a 6-4-3 triple play in the third inning on September 18 at Toronto; with Dean Kremer pitching, Toronto's Matt Chapman lined out to shortstop Jorge Mateo, who flipped to second baseman Terrin Vavra to double off Vladimir Guerrero, Jr., who then threw to first baseman Jesús Aguilar to catch Bo Bichette...Marked the 15th triple play in Orioles history (since 1954) and first since a 5-4-3 triple play on August 3, 2017 vs. Detroit...The Orioles were one of four teams (six occurrences) to turn a triple play in 2022.

HAYS MAKES HISTORY: On June 22 vs. Washington, Austin Hays singled in the first inning, slugged his 10th home run of the year to lead off the bottom of the third inning, tripled in the fourth inning, and laced a two-RBI double to center field in the sixth inning to become the sixth player in Orioles history (since 1954) to hit for the cycle, and the first since Jonathan Villar on August 5, 2019 vs. New York-AL...Hays is the fourth Oriole to hit for the cycle at home (all at Oriole Park) and the second to achieve the feat from the leadoff spot, joining Villar...He is the first Oriole to hit for the cycle in the first six innings of a game, and the first MLB player to do so since Freddie Freeman on August 18, 2021.

BALANCED ATTACK: Nine players - Austin Hays (16), Trey Mancini (10), Jorge Mateo (13), Ryan Mountcastle (22), Cedric Mullins (16), Rougned Odor (13), Adley Rutschman (13), Anthony Santander (33), and Ramón Urías (16) - hit at least 10 home runs in an O's uniform in 2022, tied with Atlanta, Los Angeles-NL, and Milwaukee for second-most in the majors, trailing only New York-AL (10).

A DEBUT TO REMEMBER: Gunnar Henderson made his MLB debut on August 31 at Cleveland after having his contract selected from Triple-A Norfolk prior to the game...He slugged a solo home run in the fourth inning for his first career hit, becoming the fourth player in Orioles history (since 1954) to homer in his MLB debut and first since Trey Mancini on September 20, 2016 vs. Boston... According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Henderson is the youngest player in O's history to homer in his debut at 21 years, 63 days old...He singled in the ninth inning to become the 21st player in club history to record a multi-hit game in his debut and first since Cedric Mullins on August 10, 2018 vs. Boston.

Henderson became the youngest player to make his MLB debut for the O's since Dylan Bundy (19-313) on September 23, 2012, and the youngest position player since Manny Machado (20-034) on August 9, 2012.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

TRIPLES IS BEST: The Orioles ranked fifth in the AL and 11th in MLB with 25 triples, their most since they also had 25 in 2019...12 O's players hit a triple in 2022, their most since they had 13 in 2015...Jorge Mateo ranked tied for second in MLB with seven triples while Cedric Mullins was tied for ninth in the AL with four...Mateo was the first O's player with at least seven triples in a season since Brian Roberts (8-3B) and Adam Jones (7-3B) in 2008.

OUCH!: Orioles batters were hit by 83 pitches in 2022, the second-most in the AL and sixth-most in MLB; marked the most hit-by-pitches in a single season in club history (since 1954), surpassing the previous mark of 77 in 2001...Anthony Santander was hit by 13 pitches, the most on the team and tied for fifth-most in the AL; marked the most hit-by-pitches by an O's batter since Adam Jones was also hit 13 times in 2012 and the most by a switch hitter in team history, surpassing the eight times Don Buford was hit by a pitch in 1970.

PITCHER'S BEST FRIEND: The O's turned 150 double plays in 2022, the second-most in the AL and fifth-most in MLB; they induced 134 opponent GIDP, the second-most in the AL and tied for third-most in MLB.

Jorge Mateo helped turn 91 double plays, tied with Texas' Corey Seager for the most among Major League shortstops; marked the most double plays turned by an O's shortstop since J.J. Hardy had 99 in 2014.

Rougned Odor helped turn 73 double plays, third-most among AL second basemen and fifth-most among MLB second basemen; marked the most double plays turned by an O's second basemen since Jonathan Schoop had 132 in 2017.

Jordan Lyles induced a career-high-tying 18 opponent GIDP (also 2021), tied for fifth-most among AL pitchers; marked the most opponent GIDP by an O's pitcher since Kevin Gausman (21) and Dylan Bundy and Wade Miley (18) in 2017.

Kyle Bradish induced 16 opponent GIDP, which led AL rookies, ranked second among MLB rookies, and tied for 10th among AL pitchers; marked the most opponent GIDP by a rookie O's pitcher since Zack Britton had 25 in 2011 and tied for the 10th-most by a rookie pitcher in club history (since 1954).

The O's turned five double plays on May 4 vs. Minnesota, tying a franchise record for the 11th time and first since July 6, 1999 vs. Toronto (10 innings); Baltimore was one of five teams with at least five double plays in a game in 2022.

SILVER AND GOLD: Adley Rutschman (C) and Anthony Santander (OF) were named AL Silver Slugger Award finalists and Cedric Mullins (CF) and Ramón Urías (3B) were named Rawlings AL Gold Glove Award finalists, with Urías earning his first career Gold Glove.

RAMÓN EMPIRE: Ramón Urías was named the 2022 AL Gold Glove Award recipient at third base...He is the first Oriole to win a Gold Glove since Manny Machado (3B) in 2015 and only the third Orioles third baseman to earn the honor in team history (since 1954), joining Machado (2x) and Orioles Legend and National Baseball Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson (16x)...Urías led AL third basemen and ranked third among MLB third basemen with 14 defensive runs saved (DRS), according to Sports Info Solutions; he also ranked tied for second on the O's...According to Statcast, Urías ranked tied for first among AL third basemen and tied for fifth among MLB third basemen with seven OAA.

CEDRIC THE ENTERTAINER: Cedric Mullins ranked tied for third among AL center fielders and tied for fourth among MLB center fielders with eight OAA, per Statcast...Mullins made two five-star catches, tied for seventh among MLB outfielders; a five-star catch is defined as a play with a catch probability between 0-25 percent.

HIP HIP JORGE!: Jorge Mateo was named the winner of the 2022 Fielding Bible Award at shortstop, per Sports Info Solutions... He ranked third among shortstops with 14 defensive runs saved and tied for second with 28 "Good Fielding Plays"...He led all shortstops by converting 72 percent of his double play opportunities...He is the first Orioles shortstop to win the award, and first Orioles winner at any position since Manny Machado won at third base in 2013...The Fielding Bible Awards have been given out by Sports Info Solutions to reward defensive excellence since 2006...The voting panel includes former Major Leaguers, current baseball media, and Sports Info Solutions staff...Each voter ranks players at each position (plus a multi-position award) from 1-10, with points awarded for each ranking...The winners are the players with the highest point total, rewarding the best defensive player in MLB at each position.

DEFENSIVE TACTICS: The Orioles finished tied for fifth in the AL and ninth in MLB with 36 DRS, according to Sports Info Solutions... Baltimore finished 24th with -30 DRS in 2021, tied for 16th with 1 DRS in 2020, 28th with -53 DRS in 2019, and 28th with -42 DRS in 2018...The last time the Orioles had at least 30 DRS in a season was 2014, when they led the AL and ranked second in MLB with 58...According to Statcast, the Orioles ranked tied for sixth in the AL and 14th in MLB with three outs above average (OAA); the O's had -30 OAA in 2021, second-worst in the AL and third-worst in MLB.

THE SKIPPER: Orioles Manager Brandon Hyde completed his fourth season as Baltimore's skipper with an 83-79 record, his first winning season...He was voted the Sporting News AL Manager of the Year by fellow American League managers and was named the Baseball America MLB Manager of the Year...He finished second in voting for the Baseball Writers' Association of America AL Manager of the Year award...Hyde collected his 200th career managerial win on September 1...He was named the 20th manager in Orioles history (since 1954) prior to the 2019 campaign.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: Adley Rutschman was voted the winner of the 2022 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media who cover the team on a regular basis...He became the third rookie to be named the winner of the award since its inception in 1954, joining right-handed pitchers Gregg Olson in 1989 and Rodrigo López in 2002...He is the third catcher to be named Most Valuable Oriole, along with Gus Triandos in 1958 and Chris Hoiles in 1993.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE NOMINEE: Dillon Tate was named the Orioles' 2022 nominee for the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award, presented by Capital One...The most prominent individual player award bestowed by MLB, the Roberto Clemente Award is the annual recognition of a player from each club who best represents the game of baseball through extraordinary character, sportsmanship, community involvement, philanthropy, and positive contributions, both on and off the field.

MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS: The Orioles honored the following players and staff members as the organization's 2022 Player Development and Scouting award winners:

Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year: Jordan Westburg (INF)
Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year: Ryan Watson (RHP)
Cal Ripken, Sr. Player Development Award: Roberto Mercado (Manager, High-A Aberdeen)
Jim Russo Scout of the Year: Scott Walter

ALL-STAR FESTIVITIES: Jorge López made the Midsummer Classic via the Player Ballot and represented the Orioles at the 2022 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles...The AL defeated the NL, 3-2, and López earned a hold after retiring the only two batters he faced on three pitches...Marked his first career All-Star selection and the first O's reliever to be selected since Brad Brach and Zack Britton in 2016...Gunnar Henderson was selected to the 2022 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game.

ROOKIE SENSATION: Adley Rutschman finished second in AL Rookie of the Year voting behind Seattle's Julio Rodríguez... Rutschman became Baltimore's first AL Rookie of the Year runner-up since John Means in 2019.

TOP GUNN: Gunnar Henderson was named Baseball America's Minor League Player of the Year and MLB Pipeline's Hitting Prospect of the Year...He finished the season ranked as the top overall prospect by Baseball America and No. 2 overall by MLB Pipeline.

LITTLE LEAGUE CLASSIC: The Orioles defeated the Red Sox, 5-3, in the 2022 MLB Little League Classic on Sunday, August 21, at Muncy Bank Ballpark at Historic Bowman Field in Williamsport, Pa...Prior to the game, Orioles and Red Sox players spent the day with Little Leaguers celebrating youth baseball at the Little League International Complex.

Dean Kremer did not factor in the decision after allowing one run on five hits with two walks and four strikeouts over 5.1 innings.

Jorge Mateo had a bases-clearing double in the eighth inning to give the Orioles a 5-2 lead; marked his first career go-ahead hit in the eighth inning or later.

MLB FIRST-YEAR PLAYER DRAFT: The Orioles selected 22 players in the 2022 First-Year Player Draft: 12 pitchers and 10 position players, with 20 of the selections being college athletes and two from the high school ranks...The Orioles picked right-handed pitchers, one left-handed pitcher, four outfielders, four infielders, and two catchers...The Orioles signed 18 players from the 2022 First-Year Player Draft: nine pitchers and nine position players...Of the 18 signed players, 16 were college athletes and two were from the high school ranks...The Orioles signed eight right-handed pitchers, one left-handed pitcher, three outfielders, four infielders, and two catchers.

The Orioles selected infielder Jackson Holliday from Stillwater (OK) High School with the first overall selection, the third time in franchise history (since 1954) that the team held the No. 1 pick: Adley Rutschman was the first overall selection in 2019 out of Oregon State University while current O's broadcaster Ben McDonald was taken No. 1 overall in 1989 out of Louisiana State University...Holliday, 18, hit .685/.749/1.392 (89-for-130) with 29 doubles, six triples, 17 home runs, 74 runs scored, 79 RBI, and 30 stolen bases in 40 games during his senior season, earning him Gatorade Oklahoma Baseball Player of the Year and Baseball America High School Player of the Year honors...He is the son of 15-year MLB veteran and seven-time All-Star Matt Holliday.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

DEADLINE DEALS: The Orioles made three trades at the 2022 Trade Deadline:

The Orioles completed a three-team trade with the Houston Astros and Tampa Bay Rays in which they acquired right-handed pitcher Seth Johnson from the Rays and right-handed pitcher Chayce McDermott from the Astros, the Astros acquired infielder/outfielder Trey Mancini from the Orioles and right-handed pitcher Jayden Murray from the Rays, and the Rays acquired outfielder José Siri from the Astros.

The Orioles acquired outfielder Brett Phillips from the Tampa Bay Rays in exchange for cash considerations.

RAIN, RAIN, GO AWAY: The Orioles had 20 games impacted by weather in 2022, with five postponements and 17 weather delays (two games had multiple delays)...The Orioles spent 16 hours, 56 minutes in rain delays, more than double the amount of time spent in weather delays in 2021, when the O's had eight hours, 24 minutes of delays.

TIE GAMES

The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, Texas Rangers-1.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

2022 PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND SCOUTING AWARDS

The Orioles selected INF Jordan Westburg as the club's top minor league player and RHP Ryan Watson as the club's top minor league pitcher.

Westburg, the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year, slashed .265/.355/.496 (144-for-544) with 39 doubles, three triples, 27 homers, 96 runs scored, 106 RBI, 70 walks, and 12 stolen bases in 138 games between Double-A Bowie and Triple-A Norfolk. He led Orioles minor leaguers in doubles, extra-base hits (69), total bases (270), and RBI. He also finished second in the organization in hits and home runs. After being promoted to the Tides on June 6, he led the International League with 74 RBI, tied for the league lead with 25 doubles, while also ranking second in the IL with 46 extra-base hits, 184 total bases, and 64 runs scored through the end of the season. The former 2020 Compensation A pick out of Mississippi State University became the first O's minor leaguer with 100+ RBI in a season since Jason Fransz drove in 111 for Single-A Delmarva in 2005. He finished the year rated as the No. 76 overall prospect by MLB Pipeline and No. 89 by Baseball America, as well as the No. 5 prospect in the Orioles system, according to MLB Pipeline. He is rated as the No. 6 Orioles prospect in Baseball America's 2023 preseason rankings.

Watson, the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year, went 7-5 with one save and a 3.44 ERA (41 ER/107.1 IP), 29 walks, and 108 strikeouts while holding opponents to a .223 average (89-for-399) in 27 games (18 starts) between Double-A Bowie and Triple-A Norfolk. He allowed just two hits and three walks with 16 strikeouts across 13.0 scoreless innings in three games (one start) to begin the season for the Baysox and was named the Orioles Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April.

High-A Aberdeen Manager Roberto Mercado was named the winner of the Cal Ripken, Sr. Player Development Award, named for the late Orioles coach and manager who is widely regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way." Each year, a minor league staff member who exemplifies Ripken's qualities as an instructor is recognized with the award. Mercado enjoyed a successful introduction to professional ball after spending the previous 17 years coaching in the high school ranks in his home state of Connecticut, part of two winters in Australia and New Zealand (Goodwill Series), as well as seven summers in the Cape Cod Baseball League. He led the IronBirds to their first playoff appearance as a High-A club, and first overall since 2013, after winning the South Atlantic League North first half with a 43-23 record. The team finished with the second-best overall record in the league at 78-54. His Aberdeen club advanced to the SAL Championship Series before falling in a winner-take-all third game to the Bowling Green Hot Rods. Mercado was instrumental in creating a positive culture and learning environment for the many prospects he managed. In total, 27 players were promoted to Bowie under his watch and 19 of those made their Double-A debuts in 2022.

Area Scout Scott Walter was named the Jim Russo Scout of the Year, named in honor of the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. Walter has been a key member of the Orioles' scouting operations since the fall of 2010, patrolling a large portion of California that ranges from Los Angeles to Northern California and Northern Nevada. Some of his recent signings include current 2021 Brooks Robinson Minor League Co-Player of the Year Kyle Stowers (Stanford) and 2022 Compensation A selection Dylan Beavers (California, Berkeley).

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2023 First-Year Player Draft will be held in Seattle during All-Star Week from July 9-11. This year, the Orioles will have the No. 17 overall pick, the first time since 2018 that the club has not held one of the top five picks. Since the First-Year Player Draft began in 1965, 34 of Baltimore's 56 first-round selections have gone on to appear in the Major Leagues. Of those 34 players, 28 made their Major League debut with the Orioles.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC ACADEMY

After announcing plans to develop a new, state-of-the-art training academy in Guerra, Dominican Republic, in March of 2021, the Orioles officially broke ground on the project in October of that year. The 22.5-acre complex will be home to the Orioles' regional facility for Caribbean, Central, and South American player development operations, which will include three full fields, a sports turfed agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities.

The project is being led by landowner and developer Brian Mejia of Brison SRL. The Orioles have been represented by renowned Dominican academy architect, José Mella. Mella is considered one of the foremost training facility architects in the Dominican Republic and has designed around half of the current academies in the DR today.

Once complete, the complex will house over 100 players, coaches, and staff, providing dormitory style rooms and entertainment spaces. It will include three classrooms and a computer lab, which will provide on-site learning and an education plan for each player. The complex will also be home to a dining room that will offer daily nutritious meals.

The complex – a 20-minute drive from Las Américas International Airport – is near several other Major League Baseball academies, allowing for a competitive schedule to be developed.

For additional information, stories, and videos regarding the announcement, along with updates throughout the process, please visit Orioles.com/DominicanAcademy.

ORIOLES IN THE INTERNATIONAL MARKET

Since Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias and Senior Director of International Scouting Koby Perez joined the organization in the 2018-19 offseason, the Orioles have completely revitalized the club's international scouting presence.

The Orioles inked the largest signing class in club history with 27 contract agreements to open the 2019-20 signing period, a number they matched with the 2022-23 class. In the four International Signing Periods that Elias and Perez have presided over, the Orioles have signed more than 90 total players, adding depth and talent to the organization's top-rated farm system.

In addition to signing more international players than ever before, the Orioles have also been signing higher-profile prospects. The club made a splash with the organization's first seven-figure contract agreements in 2020-21: infielder Maikol Hernández and catcher Samuel Basallo. Then, outfielder Braylin Tavera headlined the 2021-22 class as the highest-paid international signing in club history, before the Orioles again broke their own record by signing infielder Luis Almeyda to the largest bonus in team history to open the 2022-23 International Signing Period.

HOMER'S ODYSSEY

Jonathan Villar hit his 21st home run of the season on September 11, 2019, against Los Angeles-NL off of LHP Caleb Ferguson. The homer, a three-run shot in the seventh inning that gave the O's a 5-2 lead, was the 6,106th of the 2019 Major League season, surpassing the previous single-season record of 6,105 home runs in 2017. The bat that Villar used to hit the historic home run was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS (1954-2022)

Of the 117 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Oriole Park opened in 1992, Orioles batters have hit 55, including 11 by Chris Davis, the most by an individual. Anthony Santander's eight Eutaw Street home runs are the second-most by an individual, while Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. Santander's four Eutaw Street home runs in 2021 are a single-season ballpark record, and he also slugged the 100th Eutaw Street home run in the history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards on June 29, 2019. A season-high 11 homers landed on Eutaw Street in 2012. Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008 was the only walk-off Eutaw Street home run in park history until August 11, 2019, when Rio Ruiz clubbed a two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Orioles their first walk-off win of the season.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

NOTES: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 268-249, in their 69-year regular season history...The Orioles have also hit three postseason grand slams (one on the road and two in Baltimore - one at Memorial Stadium (McNally 1970) and Oriole Park (Bonilla 1996)...They have a 155-139 advantage in Baltimore during the regular season, including an 81-70 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...A BIG MONTH: Manny Machado hit three grand slams in August of 2017, becoming the 10th player in Major League Baseball history, and the first in Orioles history, to hit three grand slams in one calendar month... TWO IN ONE INNING: Steve Clevenger and Nolan Reimold each slugged a grand slam in the bottom of the eighth inning on September 11, 2015, the first set of teammates to each hit a grand slam in the same inning since Carlos Beltran and Cliff Floyd of the New York Mets on July 16, 2006 vs. Chicago-NL...THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Rangers combined to hit three grand slams on August 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth inning grand slams for the Orioles...TWO IN ONE GAME: An Oriole has hit two grand slams in the same game three times...Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998, at Cleveland...Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats...Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961, while Robinson did so in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970...GENTILE HIT FIVE IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the Major League record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five grand slams in 1961...The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched the record in 2006...POSTSEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only two Major League pitchers to hit grand slams in postseason play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles...Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry, the first grand slam in LCS history... McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium... GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six grand slams as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, for the sixth-highest total of career grand slams allowed in Major League history...Jake Arrieta, Scott McGregor, Dave McNally, Alan Mills, Jesse Orosco, and Chris Ray are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece... Jim Palmer never allowed a grand slam in 558 games spanning 3,948.0 innings.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 38 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons, including 23 in the past 54 years (starting in '68), more than any other Major League club. The A's (17), Yankees (16), Cardinals (13), Dodgers (13), Red Sox (13), Astros (12), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Tigers (11), Cubs (10), and Twins (10) are the only other teams with 10-or-more since 1968.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau, becoming the second foursome in the history of Major League Baseball to have achieved the feat, joining a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21.

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19, 1980, en route to a team-record 25 victories. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: Dave McNally (August 25) and Mike Cuellar (August 27) in 1971, and Jim Palmer (August 20) in 1975.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 through 1967), was left-hander Steve Barber in 1963.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 98, ORIOLES 72, Yankees 68, Braves 59, Reds 55, Pirates 50, Red Sox 49, Phillies 48, Dodgers 47, Cubs 44, Giants 44, Twins 44, Tigers 43, Mariners 42, Rangers 41, Angels 40, White Sox 40, Guardians/Indians 39, Royals 38, Astros 30, Athletics 27, Blue Jays 26, Rockies 26, Padres 24, Expos/Nationals 23, Mets 20, D-backs 18, Marlins 12, Brewers 11, and Rays 9.

A total of 18 Orioles have won Gold Gloves, with 17 winning multiple times, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Manny Machado is the last Oriole to win multiple Gold Gloves, earned his second honor in 2015 (also, 2013).

Orioles winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each); Adam Jones, Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich, and Mike Mussina (four each); J.J. Hardy, Davey Johnson, and Eddie Murray (three each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Manny Machado, Nick Markakis, Rafael Palmeiro, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Matt Wieters (two each), and Ramón Urías. Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio won nine total, Mussina seven total, and Palmeiro three total.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES SILVER SLUGGER AWARDS

The Silver Slugger Award was initiated at the end of the 1980 season by Hillerich & Bradsby, the maker of Louisville Slugger bats, to honor the best offensive player at each position by a vote of managers and coaches around the league.

A total of 13 Orioles have won Silver Sluggers, with three winning multiple times, led by Cal Rikpen, Jr., with eight Silver Sluggers. Cedric Mullins earned his first-career Silver Slugger in 2021, becoming the first Oriole to win the award since Mark Trumbo in 2016. Mullins is the third outfielder in Orioles history to have won the award. Of the 22 Silver Sluggers in O's history, 11 have been won by a shortstop.

Orioles winners include: Cal Ripken, Jr. (eight); Eddie Murray and Miguel Tejada (two each); Roberto Alomar, Chris Davis, J.J. Hardy, Aubrey Huff, Adam Jones, Melvin Mora, Cedric Mullins, Rafael Palmeiro, Mickey Tettleton, and Mark Trumbo (one each).

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

The Orioles used 58 different players (33 pitchers, 25 position players) during the 2022 season, tied with 2019 for the second-most in team history and trailing only the 2021 club (62)...30 players made their O's debut and 13 of those made their Major League debuts, tied with 2018 for the second-most in team history and trailing only the 2021 season (16)... Baltimore used only three catchers the entire year, the fewest in a full season since 2016 when the club also used three.

ALL-STAR NOTES

BIRDS OF A FEATHER: The Orioles have had 25 All-Stars over the last 11 seasons (since 2012)...According to STATS, LLC., the 25 Orioles All-Stars since 2012 are tied for the eighth-most in the American League and are tied for 15th in the majors...The Dodgers have the MLB lead with 40 All-Stars since 2012...The Orioles are one of 17 teams with at least 25 All-Stars over that period.

ROOKIE SENSATION: LHP John Means was named to the 2019 American League All-Star team as the Orioles' lone representative... According to STATS, LLC., Means was the fifth rookie in Orioles history (since 1954), and first since 1966, to be named to the All-Star team...He joined RHP Chuck Estrada (1960), 1B Jim Gentile (1960), INF Ron Hansen (1960), and C Andy Etchebarren (1966) as O's rookie All-Stars...He became the first homegrown O's starter to make the All-Star team since Hall of Famer Mike Mussina.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, INF Brian Roberts and INF Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since INF Roberto Alomar and INF Cal Ripken, Jr. each started in 1998...They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's INF Willie Randolph and INF Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

CAL'S FINALE: INF Cal Ripken, Jr., playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the third inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' RHP Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking INF Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' INF Alex Rodriguez 'pushed' him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Ripken also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player (40) to homer in an All-Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST: Ripken's appearance in the 2001 All-Star Game in Seattle made him, at 40 years and nearly 11 months, the oldest Oriole to take part in an All-Star Game...Harold Baines was 40 years and 4 months old when he made his sixth and final American League All-Star team with the Orioles in 1999 at Boston's Fenway Park...The youngest Oriole selected to an AL All-Star team was pitcher Jerry Walker, who was 20 years and 5 months old when he was named to the pitching staff for the second of two All-Star games played in 1959...Walker started and went 3.0 innings on the mound in the game, which was played the Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum.

MOST MOST VALUABLES: Oriole players have won six All-Star Game MVP Awards (now known as the Ted Williams Most Valuable Player Award), tied with the San Francisco Giants for the most among all teams since the award's inception in 1962...Cal Ripken, Jr. was a two-time winner (1991 at Toronto, 2001 at Seattle)...Other Orioles to win the award are Brooks Robinson (1964 at St. Louis), Frank Robinson (1971 at Detroit), Roberto Alomar (1998 at Colorado), and Miguel Tejada (2005 at Detroit)…Ripken is one of five players to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards, along with Willie Mays, Steve Garvey, Gary Carter, and Mike Trout.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: INF Cal Ripken, Jr. was elected to start 18 years (13x at SS, 5x at 3B), 17 of those by fan vote... He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are 3B Brooks Robinson (4x); 2B Roberto Alomar and OF Adam Jones (3x); 1B Boog Powell, OF Frank Robinson, and INF Manny Machado (3x at 3B, 1x at SS); and C Terry Kennedy, 2B Bobby Grich, OF Ken Singleton, 1B Eddie Murray, OF Brady Anderson, 2B Brian Roberts, SS Miguel Tejada, 1B Chris Davis, SS J.J. Hardy, and DH Nelson Cruz.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: SS Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the seventh overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...INF Cal Ripken, Jr. also hit two home runs in All-Star Games, in 1991 (July 9 at Toronto off RHP Dennis Martínez, two on) and 2001 (July 10 at Seattle off RHP Chan Ho Park, solo)...The others were by 3B Brooks Robinson (July 11, 1967 at Anaheim off RHP Fergie Jenkins, solo); OF Frank Robinson (July 13, 1971 at Detroit off RHP Dock Ellis, one on); OF Ken Singleton (August 9, 1981 at Cleveland off RHP Tom Seaver, solo); and 2B Roberto Alomar (July 7, 1998 at Colorado off RHP Trevor Hoffman, solo).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Oriole Park in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher LHP Billy O'Dell retired the final nine batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...Baltimore's C Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its second year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...INF Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...RHP Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...OF Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and OF Ken Griffey, Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the Home Run Derby.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

HOME RUN DERBY NOTES

MANCINI'S EPIC PERFORMANCE: Trey Mancini finished as the runner-up in the 2021 T-Mobile Home Run Derby behind New York Mets slugger Pete Alonso, who repeated as champion...Mancini, the No. 6 seed, defeated Oakland's Matt Olson (No. 3 seed) in the opening round of the bracket-style format, 24-23, setting a new franchise record for the most home runs in a single round...He then defeated Colorado's Trevor Story (No. 7 seed), 13-12, in the semifinals, before falling to No. 5 seed Alonso, 23-22, in the championship round at Coors Field in Colorado...Mancini's 59 total home runs are the most hit by an Orioles batter in Home Run Derby history...Mancini's pitcher for the Derby was Notre Dame Fighting Irish baseball team assistant coach Chuck Ristano, who also threw to Mancini when he captured the 2012 Big East Home Run Derby.

ORIOLES DERBY WINNERS: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records at the time for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, Jr., who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991.

ORIOLES DERBY PARTICIPANTS: Mark Trumbo competed in the 2016 T-Mobile Home Run Derby...Trumbo, the No. 1 seed, defeated Corey Seager in the opening round, 16-15, before falling to No. 5 seed and eventual Home Run Derby champion Giancarlo Stanton of the Miami Marlins in the semifinals, 17-14...A No. 5 seed in the 2015 Home Run Derby, Manny Machado was defeated by the Dodgers' Joc Pederson (No. 4 seed) in the first round of the bracket format, 13-12...In 2014, Adam Jones was selected by captain Jose Bautista to represent the AL at Target Field (Minneapolis)...After blasting four in the first round, Jones was ousted by Yoenis Cespedes in the second round, finishing with seven home runs total...After leading the majors in homers at the break, Chris Davis took part in the 2013 Home Run Derby at Citi Field in New York...He finished fourth...In addition to winning the 2004 Home Run Derby, Miguel Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format...Rafael Palmeiro participated in the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park, advancing to the semifinals and finishing third with 14 home runs, as well as the 1998 Home Run Derby at Coors Field...B.J. BALTIMORE ORIOLES

The Orioles went 97-63 and claimed their first American League pennant. The Orioles swept the four-game series against the Los Angeles Dodgers to win their first World Series title.

At the age of 20, Jim Palmer beat Sandy Koufax in Game 2 to become the youngest pitcher to ever throw a shutout in the World Series. Frank Robinson, who also won the Triple Crown in 1966, was named the World Series Most Valuable Player. Following the season, Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in American League MVP voting.

The Orioles finished the season with the second-best record in Major League Baseball at 96-66 and their first American League East division title since 1997. The Birds would draw the American League Central division champion Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, and faced the AL's last three Cy Young Award winners at the time in Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander, and David Price. The Orioles won each of the first two games in Baltimore and took the first game in Detroit to sweep the series 3-0 and advance to the ALCS to take on the Kansas City Royals.

The Orioles dropped each of the first two games in Baltimore to the Royals. The series then shifted to Kansas City where the Royals would pull out 2-1 wins in both Games 3 and 4 to complete the sweep of Baltimore and eliminate the Orioles.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, began play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Avenue below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to professional and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team made its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moved to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street) and adopted the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird was used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams were formed. One, also named the Orioles, played in the new Union Association; by mid-season they were transferred to Lancaster, Pa., and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, became a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team broke up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joined the National League. Games were played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th Street.

1894-1896 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles won three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler, and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finished their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joined the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles played two seasons in Baltimore before folding. The league awarded a new team to New York to fill the vacancy. That team, the Highlanders, eventually became the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joined the Eastern League. They were in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team won the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles joined the International League. They were a part of the league for the next 42 seasons until Major League Baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), entered the newly formed Federal League. The league folded after just two seasons. The team played at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Avenue between 29th and 30th street; two years later, Jack Dunn bought the ballpark and renamed it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager, and manager of the International League Orioles, signed 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname was born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, won a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years (1920-24), future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove lead the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s – The city fielded two teams in the Negro Leagues - the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella each played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to Major League careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, led the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of the World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracted interest from teams in the Major Leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, played their final season in the International League. After two votes failed, on September 29, American League owners approved the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium (later called Memorial Stadium), Baltimore returned to the Major Leagues and the Orioles returned to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles returned to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but went on to a 54-100 season.

NOVEMBER 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swapped 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards laid the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles received 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling, and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson was signed; he made his Major League debut on September 17 but did not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1959.

JULY 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosted its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retired the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurled the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, manager Paul Richards introduced the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1963 – Steve Barber became the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California.

JUNE 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, took control of the ballclub as majority owner. He led the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles went to the postseason six times.

DECEMBER 9, 1965 – The Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completed the trade, which had begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail, Jr.

MAY 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hit the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorated the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

SEPTEMBER 22, 1966 – Twenty-year-old Jim Palmer pitched a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer won 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe Four Straight?" The Orioles stunned the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson won the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver was added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, was named manager of the Orioles. He went on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they captured three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earned the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the 1970 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles won back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they were beaten by Oakland in the American League Championship Series both years.

JUNE 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, began to remake the club with a 10-player trade with the New York Yankees. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez, and Rick Dempsey came from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, was among those sent to New York.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium was filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

JUNE 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit and gave birth to "Orioles Magic."

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

1979 – The Orioles won the American League pennant for the fifth time and took a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series, but the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" came back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

NOVEMBER 1, 1979 – American League owners approved the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ended both local and public ownership of the club.

AUGUST 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken, Jr. made his Major League debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record was the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decided to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finished second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

OCTOBER 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with four games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, took the first three games at Memorial Stadium to force a tie for first. The Brewers spoiled the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced retirement at the end of the season, was saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lost the first game of the American League Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox in three straight games. They lost the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken, Jr. was named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lost a Major League-record 21 consecutive games to start the season.

MAY 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles played before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announced that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

DECEMBER 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs bought the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" was the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably led the AL East into September. They eventually lost at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

OCTOBER 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ended as the Orioles played their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken, Jr. – who added his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won mid-season – hit into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit did not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles returned in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

APRIL 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushered in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0, on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helped revitalize the neighborhood and earned wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

JULY 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosted the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.

AUGUST 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos led a group of investors – most of whom were Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at an auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approved the sale on October 4.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1995 – The Iron Man topped the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken, Jr. surpassed a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helped beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles drew 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They went on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hit his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A Major League-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles broke the New York Yankees 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advanced to the playoffs as the Wild Card team, finishing second in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the American League Division Series before the Yankees ended the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles went wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken, Jr. ended his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor started in his place at third base.

APRIL 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken, Jr. singled at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone.

OCTOBER 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken, Jr. played his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career resulted in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame.

JULY 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, began 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

NOVEMBER 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveiled their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

OCTOBER 5, 2012 – The Orioles and Rangers met in the first American League Wild Card "play-in" game in Arlington. The Orioles won 5-1 to advance to the ALDS, where they fell in five games to the Yankees.

2013 – Chris Davis homered for the 51st time on September 17 at Boston, breaking Brady Anderson's club record set in 1996. Davis added two more before season's end, finishing with 53. The Orioles finished with a .991 fielding percentage, the best in Major League history.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2014 – With an 8-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays, the Orioles secured their ninth AL East Division title in team history, marking the third time the club had clinched in Baltimore, the first time since 1979, and the first division clinch with a win in Baltimore since 1969.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 – The Orioles swept the Detroit Tigers with a 2-1 victory in Game 3 of the American League Division Series to advance to the ALCS for the first time since 1997, where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games.

APRIL 29, 2015 – Citing the need for local resources to be better utilized during a period of unrest in Baltimore, the Orioles played an unprecedented game without fans against the Chicago White Sox after closing the contest to the public. The Orioles went on to win, 8-2.

JUNE 16, 2015 – Seven different Orioles combined to slug a club-record eight home runs against the Philadelphia Phillies, surpassing the previous club mark of seven. Chris Davis' fourth inning blast was his seventh career home run to land on Eutaw Street, the most such home runs in Oriole Park history by an individual player. He hit his eighth career Eutaw Street home run on August 14, 2015 vs. Oakland, and has 11 career Eutaw Street home runs.

JUNE 28, 2015 – In the second game of a doubleheader against Cleveland, the Orioles recorded their 5,000th regular season victory in club history.

AUGUST 1, 2015 – Outfielder Gerardo Parra became the 1,000th player to appear in a game for the Orioles since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954.

OCTOBER 4, 2016 – The Orioles advanced to postseason play for the third time in five seasons, and met the Toronto Blue Jays in the American League Wild Card Game. The Blue Jays defeated the Orioles, 5-2, in 11 innings at Rogers Centre.

AUGUST 5, 2017 – The Orioles reached 10,000 regular season home runs in Orioles history (since 1954) against Detroit, when Tim Beckham connected for a solo home run in the eighth inning off of Edward Mujica.

2018 – The Orioles finished the season with a franchise-worst 115 losses, posting a record of 47-115 (.290) and 61 games behind first-place Boston.

2019 – The Orioles finished the season with over 100 losses for the second consecutive year, posting a record of 54-108 (.333) and 49 games behind first-place New York-AL. On June 3, the Orioles selected catcher Adley Rutschman from Oregon State University with the No. 1 overall selection of the 2019 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. On July 25 at Los Angeles-AL, Stevie Wilkerson became the first position player to record a save since the save became an official statistic in 1969.

2020 – Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Orioles played a 60-game regular season schedule, the fewest in the club's history.

2021 – Following the pandemic-shortened season, fans returned to Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the first time in 557 days for the club's home opener on April 8. After missing the entire 2020 season battling stage III colon cancer, Trey Mancini took the field to a standing ovation from the Birdland faithful. Cedric Mullins went on to become the first player in Orioles history (since 1954) to record 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a single season.

2022 – Baltimore became the first team since 1900 to win at least 77 games in a season after losing 110+ games the previous year and only the third team in MLB history to finish with a .500-or-better record after losing 110+ games the prior campaign. Adley Rutschman broke the record for doubles by an O's rookie and by an Orioles catcher in one season, while Anthony Santander tied an MLB record by homering from both sides of the plate in the same game four times in a single year. On July 17, Jackson Holliday became the third No. 1 overall selection by Baltimore in club history when he was drafted out of Stillwater (OK) HS.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

There are currently six players and/or managers enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y. as Orioles (induction year in parenthesis):

Cal Ripken, Jr., SS (2007)
Eddie Murray, 1B (2003)
Earl Weaver, Manager (1996)
Jim Palmer, RHP (1990)
Brooks Robinson, 3B (1983)
Frank Robinson, RF (1982)

In 2007, Cal Ripken, Jr. received 98.53 percent of the vote total (537 of the 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. At the time, it was the third-highest percent of the vote total in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79% in 1999).

All five players to be inducted into the Hall of Fame as Orioles were elected in their first year of eligibility (Earl Weaver was selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee).

Additionally, there are 17 other modern-day players, managers, and front office executives with ties to the Orioles organization that have been inducted into the Hall of Fame (induction year in parenthesis):

Mike Mussina, RHP (2019)
Harold Baines, OF (2019)
Lee Smith, RHP (2019)
Vladimir Guerrero, RF (2018)
Jim Thome, 1B (2018)
Tim Raines, Sr., LF (2017)
John Schuerholz, Executive (2017)
Roberto Alomar, 2B (2011)
Pat Gillick, Executive (2011)
Whitey Herzog, Manager (2010)
Dick Williams, Manager (2008)
Lee MacPhail, Executive (1998)
Reggie Jackson, RF (1993)
Hoyt Wilhelm, RHP (1985)
Luis Aparicio, SS (1984)
George Kell, 3B (1983)
Robin Roberts, RHP (1976)

In addition to the nine former Orioles players that have been inducted as members of other organizations, three executives and two managers that have spent time with the Orioles have also been enshrined in Cooperstown:

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-98, was elected by the Veterans Committee and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late 1950s and early 1960s, was named a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager after managing 21 years in the Major Leagues with six different teams, winning four league titles and two world championships.

Lee MacPhail, who served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1959-65, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an executive by the Veterans Committee in 1998. His son, Andy, would serve as the President of Baseball Operations with the Orioles from 2007-11.

Whitey Herzog was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame as a manager, but played for the Orioles from 1961-62.

John Schuerholz, a member of the Orioles front office from 1966-68, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Today's Game Era Committee as part of the 2017 class. Schuerholz currently serves as vice chairman, emeritus of the Atlanta Braves and spent 26 years as a Major League Baseball general manager from 1982-2007 with the Kansas City Royals and Braves.

NATIVE MARYLANDERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Currently, 11 members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum have been born in Maryland: Harold Baines (Easton), John Schuerholz (Baltimore), Bowie Kuhn (Takoma Park), Cal Ripken, Jr. (Havre de Grace), Vic Willis (Elkton), Al Kaline (Baltimore), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Frank "Home Run" Baker (Trappe), Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and George Herman "Babe" Ruth (Baltimore).

Additionally, of the 11 members of the Hall of Fame to be born in Maryland, five once played for the Orioles. Cal Ripken, Jr. (1981-2001) and Harold Baines (1993-95, 1997-99, 2000) played for Baltimore, while Frank "Home Run" Baker (1907), Lefty Grove (1920-24), and Babe Ruth (1914) all played for the International League Orioles.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, four other Orioles broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), Bob Murphy ('60-'61), and Jon Miller ('83-'96).

John McGraw, Manager (1937)
George Herman "Babe" Ruth, OF (1936)

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their sixth scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Double Day Field on May 14, 2007. It turned out to be the last Hall of Fame Game played; the 2008 game between the Padres and Cubs was rained out, and the game was discontinued after that. The Orioles went 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one postponed by rain. The results:

1961	Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2	1990	Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967	Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998	Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983	St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1	2007	Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates, and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates, and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75 percent of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame were former Orioles infielder J.J. Hardy and outfielder Mike Devereaux in 2021. Hardy played the last seven seasons of his 13-year career with the Orioles from 2011-17, winning three consecutive Gold Glove Awards from 2012-14 and was the starting shortstop for the American League All-Star team in 2013. He ranks third among Orioles shortstops in games played behind Cal Ripken, Jr. and Mark Belanger, and led the league in fielding percentage three times. He batted .252 with 107 home runs and 385 RBI with the Orioles, helping the team to three post-season berths.

Devereaux spent seven of his 12 big league seasons with the Orioles, 1989-94 and 1996. The center fielder was voted Most Valuable Oriole in 1992 after leading the team in 10 offensive categories including batting average, home runs, and RBI. He batted .251 with 94 home runs and 403 RBI in his Orioles career and is one of three Orioles to finish a season with 10-or-more doubles, triples, and home runs (1991 and 1992), and the only one to do so twice. He also played for the Orioles' 1996 Wild Card-winning team.

The Orioles Hall of Fame currently has 58 former players, coaches, and managers.

"WILD BILL" HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out. Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award.

On July 28, 2020, Mossila "Mo" Gaba was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame as the second-ever recipient of The Wild Billy Hagy Award. The Orioles honored Mo as one of the most passionate and devoted fans in franchise history.

Mo, who passed away the night of his election to the Hall of Fame, began calling in to 105.7 The Fan's sports programming in 2015 at the age of nine. Unbeknownst to his mother, Sonsy, he would call in on afternoons when he got home from school to share his unparalleled knowledge of Baltimore sports with local fans and radio listeners. Despite losing his eyesight due to a malignant tumor when he was just nine months old and enduring four different battles with cancer throughout his life, his infectious laughter and enthusiasm quickly captured the hearts of local sports fans, making him a Baltimore celebrity and a household name.

Mo regularly made appearances at Orioles games and events, including in 2017, when he threw out the ceremonial first pitch as part of Kids' Opening Day, and in 2019, when his "Play Ball!" call on Kids' Opening Day officially marked the start of a new season. After inspiring countless fans and Baltimoreans with his positivity, PressBox recognized Mo as the 2019 Sportsperson of the Year.

Mo's positive energy was constant throughout every battle and brought the entire city of Baltimore together in the face of ongoing crisis. His unwavering positivity and kindness were qualities every Baltimorean aspires to emulate. Mo Gaba impacted more people in his 14 years than most people do in an entire lifetime, and the Orioles are honored to forever celebrate him as a member of the Orioles Hall of Fame.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ball club, the community, or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager, and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

The most recent winner of the Herb Armstrong Award was Joe Angel in 2021. Angel spent 19 seasons over three stints as an Orioles radio broadcaster before retiring following the 2018 season. Overall, he spent 42 years as a baseball broadcaster, also working for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland Athletics, Minnesota Twins, New York Yankees, and Florida Marlins, as well as ESPN. Originally part of the Orioles broadcast team from 1988-90, Angel returned for one season in 1992 before becoming the first broadcast voice of the Marlins for eight years. He rejoined the Orioles radio team in 2004 for his final 15 seasons, where his signature calls of "Hasta la vista pelota!," "Wave that baby bye-bye!," and "Put it in the WIN column!," delighted Orioles fans.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE

Catcher Adley Rutschman was voted the winner of the 2022 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media. Rutschman had one of the best seasons by an Orioles rookie and by an O's catcher in team history after slashing .254/.362/.445 (101-for-398) with 35 doubles, one triple, 13 home runs, 70 runs scored, 42 RBI, and 65 walks in 113 games. He finished second in the American League Rookie of the Year voting, received a fifth-place AL Most Valuable Player vote, and was an AL Silver Slugger Award finalist, this all despite missing nearly a month to begin the season due to injury and not debuting in the majors until May 21.

Rutschman's 35 doubles were the most by an Orioles rookie in a single season in franchise history (since 1954), surpassing the mark of 32 set by Orioles Legend and Hall of Famer Cal Ripken, Jr. in 1982. His 35 doubles were also the most in a single season by a primary O's catcher, ahead of Javy López's 33 in 2004. He became the second Orioles rookie with at least 10 home runs and 30 doubles in a season, along with Ripken. His 63 walks were the fourth-most in one year by an Orioles rookie.

He led the Orioles, tied the MLB and AL lead among rookies, and tied for ninth among all AL players in FanGraphs' Wins Above Replacement (fWAR) with 5.3. That is the third-best fWAR by a rookie catcher in MLB history, trailing only Los Angeles-NL's Mike Piazza (7.4, 1993) and Boston's Carlton Fisk (6.6, 1972), the second-best by an O's rookie in team history, trailing Bobby Grich (5.4, 1972), and the third-best by an Orioles catcher behind Chris Hoiles (7.0, 1993) and Matt Wieters (5.7, 2011).

Rutschman led the Orioles in doubles and walks, ranked third in runs scored, fifth in extra-base hits, and sixth in total bases. Among Orioles batters with at least 400 plate appearances, he led the team in on-base percentage and OPS and ranked second in slugging percentage.

Defensively, he appeared in 93 games (84 starts) at catcher and compiled 18 Defensive Runs Saved, the second-most among MLB catchers and tied for the eighth-most DRS in baseball.

Rutschman entered the season rated as the top MLB prospect by The Athletic, Baseball America, ESPN, FanGraphs, and MLB Pipeline. He began the season on Triple-A Norfolk's Injured List before beginning a rehab assignment with High-A Aberdeen on April 26. After a brief three-day stint at Double-A Bowie, Rutschman made his debut with Triple-A Norfolk on May 6 before having his contract selected on May 21. He made his MLB debut that night against Tampa Bay, catching and batting sixth, and tripled in the seventh inning to become the ninth Oriole to triple for their first career hit and third to do so in his MLB debut.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. The award is named in honor of the late Lou Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Baltimore Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Thirteen players - Eddie Murray (seven), Cal Ripken, Jr. (four), Brooks Robinson (four), Adam Jones (three), Rafael Palmiero (three), Frank Robinson (three), Ken Singleton (three), and Chris Davis, Stu Miller, Jim Palmer, Boog Powell, Brian Roberts, and Miguel Tejada (two) - have won the award more than once.

EARL WEAVER

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl Weaver currently ranks 26th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks eighth on the all-time list of those who managed 10-or-more seasons in the Majors.

Weaver was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as a first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants, and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Weaver's Orioles won 100 games-or-more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1½ years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as a manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Weaver passed away on January 19, 2013, at age 82. His widow, Marianna, lives in Pembroke Pines, Fla.

BROOKS ROBINSON
5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive Opening Day games. He won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a position player with 16. His election to Baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Robinson played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken, Jr. among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases, and extra-base hits. In addition to his American League MVP Award in 1964 and his World Series MVP Award in 1970, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in 1960, 1962, 1964, and co-winner in 1971 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an American League player in 1977. In 2016, Robinson was honored at the annual Rawlings Gold Glove Award ceremony with a Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2020, he was awarded the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award for his integrity and honorable service as an Ordnance Parts Specialist in the Army National Guard in response to the Vietnam War.

Robinson holds six Major League fielding records and seven American League records for third basemen, including 2,697 putouts. He is 16th on the all-time list of games played (fourth in the AL) and fourth in games played with one team.

He currently serves as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Robinson and his wife, Connie, have four children.

CAL RIPKEN, JR.
8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal Ripken, Jr. spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only 11 players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Adrián Beltré, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, Alex Rodriguez, Dave Winfield, and Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star Game, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two American League MVP Awards (1983 and 1991), American League Rookie of the Year honors (1982), two Gold Gloves, and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Ripken went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award (1992) and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award (1990), among many other honors.

Since his playing career ended in 2001, Ripken has focused his attention on growing the game at the grassroots level and helping underserved communities. Cal's business, Ripken Baseball operates four youth baseball and softball tournament destinations known as The Ripken Experience. They are located in his hometown of Aberdeen, Md. as well as Myrtle Beach, SC, Pigeon Forge, TN and, most recently, Disney World in Orlando, FL. Cal and his family also formed the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation twenty years ago. Since 2001 the CRSF has grown to serve over 1.2 million young people across the country annually through impactful programs such as Badges for Baseball & Healthy Children, Healthy Choices and through the construction of Youth Development Parks and Elementary School STEM Centers. To date over 100 Youth Development Parks, at a cost of roughly $1 million each, have been built in areas of need and gifted to youth-serving organization. In addition, more than 80 STEM Centers, along with corresponding curriculum, have been added to schools in 15 states. In 2015, Ripken was named Major League Baseball Special Advisor on Youth Programs and Outreach by Commissioner Robert D. Manfred and since 2007 Cal has served as a Special Envoy to the US State Department and in that role has made goodwill trips to China, Japan, Nicaragua and the Czech republic.

Frank Robinson's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all time in numerous statistical categories. He hit 586 home runs, 10th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player (1966-71), coach (1979-80 and 85-87), manager (1988-91), and assistant general manager (1991-95).

The trade that brought Robinson from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the American League and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the 1971 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Robinson was the National League Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues (1961 NL, 1966 AL). He played in 14 All-Star Games and was MVP of the 1971 Midsummer Classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in Major League history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians (1975-77), he managed the San Francisco Giants (1981-84), the Orioles (1988-91), and the Montreal Expos-Washington Nationals (2002-06).

Robinson was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 1982. On February 2, 2015, Robinson was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League.

Robinson passed away on February 7, 2019, at the age of 83. His widow, Barbara, lives in Los Angeles.

JIM PALMER

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim Palmer won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span (1973, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is fourth on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched in the live-ball era (1920-present).

Palmer won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six pitchers who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 postseason appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the American League's starting pitcher four times.

Palmer was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 29th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN. On January 12, 2012, Palmer was awarded the Player Lifetime Achievement Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation.

Palmer and his wife, Susan, live in Corona del Mar, Calif. with their son, Spencer. His oldest daughter, Jamie, lives in Cotuit, Mass., with her husband, Paul. Palmer's younger daughter, Kelly, lives in Trophy Club, Texas, with her husband, David, and their twins, Maxine and Henri.

EDDIE MURRAY
33

Eddie played 12½ of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Murray, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, and Alex Rodriguez are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 Major League seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in modern-day history and ranks 10th all-time in RBI. Murray was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers, and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, the second most in history behind Pete Rose. He also appeared in 2,413 games as a first baseman, the most by a first baseman in Major League history.

Murray broke in as the American League Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Ripken).

He currently serves as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Murray's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the New York Mets, Cleveland Indians, and Los Angeles Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the Major League record for games played and career assists by a first baseman. Murray has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL™

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards (OPACY) opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

OPACY inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America.

Oriole Park is unique, traditional, and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the Upper Deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural turfgrass are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900s.

In the 31 years that have followed, OPACY has been one of the leading catalysts for year-round tourism in Baltimore and Maryland. The downtown attraction has welcomed more than 74 million fans, including individuals from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived over $10 billion in economic impact from fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 31 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in major concerts, festivals, meetings, tours, and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

OPACY captured the nation's attention from day one and in the seasons that followed has served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and across the Mid-Atlantic region as well as Orioles fans everywhere, should take great pride in the fact that their team makes its home in The Ballpark That Forever Changed Baseball™.

Designed by the architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata + Kassabaum (HOK), with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), the construction of the Oriole Park at Camden Yards was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began on June 28, 1989, in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the city's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary slugger, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street and Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park.

BALLPARK ENHANCEMENTS

Prior to the 2023 season, in partnership with SuperBook Sports, the Orioles constructed the first-ever retail sports lounge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, located along Eutaw Street. Retail partner, Fanatics, also officially overtook all in-venue retail locations, including a revamp of the Orioles Team Store located on Eutaw Street.

Prior to the 2022 season, the Orioles adjusted the measurements of the left field wall, pushing it back as much as 30 feet in varying increments at different points in the wall, and raising the heigh by approximately 5 feet.

In a continuing effort to create the most family-friendly atmosphere in sports, the Orioles extended protective netting at OPACY down each foul line to near each foul pole in August of 2019. Protective netting was also extended to near the foul poles at Ed Smith Stadium prior to the start of 2020 Spring Training.

The natural surface of the warning track, installed in 2013 to replace the original rubberized warning track from 1992, is composed of crushed stone, matching the color of the brick that appears throughout the ballpark and on the Warehouse.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

Prior to the 2023 season, the Orioles announced a new partnership with Levy, the market leader in creating unforgettable hospitality experiences at sports and entertainment venues, to craft an elevated food and beverage experience for fans visiting Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The partnership includes providing iconic tastes of Baltimore and the Chesapeake Bay, upgraded technology to allow faster and frictionless check-out options, and new culinary training opportunities for up-and-coming hospitality talent.

LEED CERTIFICATION

In 2018, after a multi-year effort of research and enhancements, the U.S. Green Building Council awarded OPACY with Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold Certification for an existing building. The accompanying B&O Warehouse was also awarded with LEED Silver.

B&O WAREHOUSE BUILDING

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate and houses office space for the Orioles as well as banquet facilities and the ballpark's central kitchen. Built between 1898 and 1905, the Warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1,016 feet, and is only 51 feet wide.

WAREHOUSE LIGHTS

Throughout the year, the Orioles show their support for numerous causes by lighting the lights on the front of the Warehouse in specific colors. This past year, the lights were lit blue and yellow for Ukraine's Independence Day in August, and rainbow colors to show support for LGBTQ+ community during Pride month, among others.

EUTAW STREET

The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60-foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street, which gives access to The Orioles Official Team Store, and various plaques and displays, including markings for every home run ball to hit Eutaw Street.

FOUL POLES

Both the left and right field foul poles are the original poles used while the Orioles played at Memorial Stadium.

SEAT FEATURES

Every aisle seat in the park includes a reproduction of the 125-year-old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants from 1894-96.

ATTENDANCE INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, Md., as their designated 50 millionth fan to attend a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park was the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50-million fan milestone in the history of baseball, a record that stood until the San Francisco Giants broke the mark at AT&T Park during the 2015 season. In its first 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history (since 1954) entered the gates at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, W. Va., was designated as the milestone fan. In 69 seasons and 5,084 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 124,208,784 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 74,363,196 fans in 2,368 dates in 31 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 31,403 fans per game in 2,368 dates at Oriole Park.

2021: To begin the year, Oriole Park opened at 25 percent capacity to comply with the City of Baltimore's health and safety mandates related to the COVID-19 pandemic. OPACY returned to full capacity on June 1, staying that way for the remainder of the season.

2020: In order to prioritize the health and safety of the team, staff, and fans during the global COVID-19 pandemic, fans were not permitted at Oriole Park during the 2020 season.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007, series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set August 21-23, 1998, vs. Cleveland.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES

3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)
2 million—43 home dates ('94)
1 million—22 home dates ('94)

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did so for four consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 31 non-strike shortened or pandemic-shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 4,965 on September 8, 2021, against the Kansas City Royals. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

ZERO FANS: Fans were not permitted at any regular season Major League Baseball game during the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to the 2020 season, on April 29, 2015, the Orioles played a game against the Chicago White Sox at Oriole Park, which was closed to the public. The game was not considered in tallying the total season attendance and the date was not included in the average per game attendance.

ENTERTAINMENT

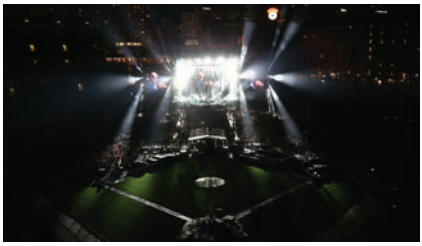
BIRDLAND SUMMER MUSIC SERIES: The Birdland Summer Music Series offers entertainment while continuing the club's goal of bringing more visitors to downtown Baltimore and solidifying Camden Yards as an elite entertainment destination for the state of Maryland.

In 2022, the Birdland Summer Music Series featured Grammy nominated rapper Flo Rida; popular 90s artists, including Baltimore's own Dru Hill, with special performances by Sisqó, and Platinum-selling Smash Mouth; and British rock band The Struts.

PAUL McCARTNEY: The Orioles hosted singer-songwriter Paul McCartney for the second-ever major concert at Camden Yards on Sunday, June 12, as part of his 2022 GOT BACK tour. Presented by AEG and Orioles Entertainment, the performance to a sold-out crowd was McCartney's first Baltimore concert in nearly 60 years, as he last visited Charm City in 1964 during The Beatles' first North American tour.

BILLY JOEL: The 2019 Birdland Summer Music Series was headlined by Rock & Roll Hall of Famer and music legend Billy Joel. Billy Joel's July 26 show marked the first ever concert at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The 2019 Birdland Summer Music Series also featured Friday Fireworks & Women of Country Music and Saturday Roof Deck Sessions during home games.

As part of the Orioles' commitment to empowering our youth and strengthening our community, fans had the opportunity to share their love of music by making a voluntary donation to benefit Baltimore-based arts and music education organizations. The Orioles matched to $10,000 in fan donations, with all proceeds benefiting the Orioles Charitable Foundation's Athletes and Artists Play for Kids Educational Scholarship Fund. Since establishing the Athletes and Artists fund in 2015, more than $400,000 has benefited Girls, Inc., Baltimore School for the Arts, Jubilee Arts, the YMCA, and other charitable organizations in Baltimore, Sarasota, and Nashville.



DISPLAYS THROUGHOUT ORIOLE PARK

ORIOLES HALL OF FAME: Located at the north end of the Warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of their accomplishments.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS: Four-foot monuments, located at the north end of the Warehouse honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken, Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), and Eddie Murray (33).

ORIOLES LEGENDS PARK: In celebration of the 20th anniversary of OPACY in 2012, the Orioles unveiled larger-than-life bronze sculptures of the six Orioles who have their numbers retired and are National Baseball Hall of Fame members. The sculptures, created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez, are located in Orioles Legends Park.

MID-ATLANTIC SCOUTS HALL OF FAME: A tribute to baseball scouts over the years, plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

MARYLAND STATE ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME: The names of Marylanders who left their mark in athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

CAL RIPKEN, JR. SEAT: To honor Ripken's 278th career homer, hit on July 15, 1993, which surpassed Ernie Banks' MLB record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (previously Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat.

EDDIE MURRAY SEAT: To honor Murray's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996, off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the locations where home runs cleared the right field gate. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, team logo, distance the ball traveled, and date the home run was hit.

BIRDLAND MURALS: In partnership with PNC Bank, the Birdland Murals series highlights Baltimore's vibrant arts community and allows Orioles fans to experience the incredible talents of several local artists.

In 2022, the Orioles added an Oriole Park mural, located near Legends Park and the Bullpen Picnic Area, created by globally renowned artist Logan Hicks. The mural depicts a bustling Eutaw Street, celebrating the more than 74 million fans and visitors Oriole Park at Camden Yards has brought to downtown Baltimore since the ballpark opened in 1992. An additional mural lives in the Waverly neighborhood, near the location of Memorial Stadium. Created by Thomas Evans, a.k.a. Detour, and Nether, this mural celebrates the Orioles' connection to the Waverly community.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Two murals were added as part of the project in 2021, including a tribute to some of the most iconic figures in Baltimore's Negro Leagues History designed by West Baltimore-native Ernest Shaw in collaboration with Open Walls Baltimore curator Gaia, and a two-wall mural by local graffiti writer Adam Stab, depicting baseball scenes with the Oriole Bird swinging a bat, playing catch, and cheering. The Negro Leagues History mural can be found in Legends Park, while Stab's artwork is located under the video board between the center field bleachers and Eutaw Street.

In 2019, the first year of the partnership, the Orioles selected local female artists to showcase the city's arts community through the creation of larger than life murals throughout Oriole Park. The female-led projects were part of the Orioles' yearlong celebration of women's equality and girls' empowerment in honor of the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment in August of 2020.

PLAQUES AT ORIOLE PARK: In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken, Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager, and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons…"

In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999, passing Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in the bullpen.

Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years, and the late Monica Pence Barlow, the Orioles' public relations director and a member of the organization for 14 years. Additionally, a plaque in the first base camera well honors longtime team photographer Jerry Wachter.

A plaque in the umpires' tunnel is dedicated to the memory of Ernie Tyler, who for 48 years served as the Umpires' Attendant for the Orioles. Tyler, who's sons Fred and Jim still work for the Orioles, dedicated his life to his job, at one time working 3,819 consecutive games.

CREDENTIALS: All media credential requests must be submitted through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system. Credentials will issued in accordance with the Baltimore Orioles Credential Policy and are non-transferable. All requests for single-game credentials must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times. Credentialed media must adhere to the policies below. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked and/or denial for future media access.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Media must enter the ballpark via Home Plate Plaza, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park between Gates D and E. Home Plate Plaza opens 4.5 hours before first pitch for night games, and 3.5 hours before first pitch for day games. Credential pick-up is located at Home Plate Plaza. Credentials will only be released on an individual-basis and to those with a government-issued photo ID. All bags and equipment are subject to search upon entry and at other points as deemed necessary.

PARKING: Media parking in Lot A is available on a first-come, first-served basis, with overflow parking located in Lots B/C off Lee Street. All media approved for daily credentials will automatically be added to the parking list. Media must show a photo ID to the parking attendant.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are forbidden from seeking autographs at any time. Any media member found in violation of this rule will have their credential revoked.

PRESS BOX: The main press box is located on the Lower Press Level (2nd floor). Broadcast booths are located on the Upper Press Level (3rd floor) and are reserved for rightsholders or other entities as assigned by the Orioles PR department. Media are expected to follow the prioritized seating positions located on seating charts throughout the press box. Television outlets and still photographers may not film or shoot from the press box without prior permission from the Orioles PR department.

FIELD ACCESS: Media must enter and exit the field through the umpires tunnel. The field is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time, with the exception of special first pitch ceremonies that have been announced as open to media. Media must remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times, and are not allowed on the playing field under any circumstance.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Only media with MLB, BBWAA, or properly marked, team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to tight interview shots. Tripods and still photography are not permitted without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. The Orioles clubhouse will open each day for media access prior to batting practice and again within 10 minutes after the final out. Updates and exact timing will be announced via Twitter @OriolesPR. Media are only permitted within the locker room area of the clubhouse. The trainers' area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen, showers, and access hallways are off-limits to media at all times.

CELL PHONES: Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. The use of cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media will result in the credential being revoked and ejection from the ballpark. Cell phones may not be used to capture pictures or video in the clubhouse at any time. Violators will lose clubhouse privileges.

INTERVIEWS: Phone, in-studio, or sit-down interviews must be arranged through the Orioles PR department by emailing oriolespr@orioles.com. Media are not to contact players directly and may not conduct interviews on the field during stretch or batting practice without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY: Manager Brandon Hyde will meet with media in the Auxiliary Clubhouse prior to each game and again approximately 10 minutes following the end of the game. Any changes to the manager's media availability will be announced on Twitter via @OriolesPR.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Photo wells are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts, and camera positions are assigned by the Orioles photography department. Photographers may work from the stands as long as they are not obstructing the view of fans, but they are not permitted in the first four rows behind home plate. Additionally, photographers are able to utilize the overhangs located on the first and third base sides on the Club Level. A work room for photographers is located adjacent to the press box on Lower Press Level. Once the game has started, photographers may use the entrances/exits outside of the first and third base photo wells. No still photographs are permitted in either clubhouse without permission of the Public Relations Department of each team.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

TELEVISION

MASN, the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, has been the exclusive television home for all Baltimore Orioles games since 2007. An independent regional sports network, MASN is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and provides unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

Every Orioles game is televised in high-definition on one of the network's two channels, MASN and MASN2, with exception to nationally televised games. MASN and MASN2 airs throughout an exclusive territory that covers a seven-state region from Harrisburg, Pa. to Charlotte, N.C. All of MASN's cable, satellite, and fiber-optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season. (Visit MASNsports.com for local listings.)

Fans can follow MASN via @masnOrioles on Twitter, on Facebook at facebook.com/masnorioles, and via @masnOrioles on Instagram. Roch Kubatko covers the team year-round on MASNsports.com and can be followed on Twitter at @masnRoch.

RADIO

Hearst's 98 Rock FM & WBAL NewsRadio AM/FM serves as the flagship station of the seven-state, 40-station Orioles Radio Network. Fans can hear extensive coverage of all regular season games, including pre- and postgame shows, as well as select Spring Training contests throughout the Orioles Radio Network.

The Orioles' radio rights returned to 98 Rock & WBAL NewsRadio in 2022, which have served as the broadcast home for the Orioles for 44 of the Orioles 68 years in Baltimore, most recently from 2010-14.

In 2010, the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA Radio to serve as their affiliate in York, Pa. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

2023 ORIOLES BROADCAST TEAM

GEOFF ARNOLD
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Geoff Arnold is in his fourth season as the primary radio play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network, also calling games on MASN. The 2022 season marks Arnold's 11th in professional baseball, including nine in the Orioles organization, having previously served as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Frederick Keys, Baltimore's formere Class A-Advanced affiliate from 2014-20. Prior to joining the Orioles, Arnold called games for Kansas City's Class A-Advanced affiliate, the Wilmington Blue Rocks and Texas' Double-A affiliate, the Frisco RoughRiders.

Arnold also made frequent appearances across multiple ESPN and regional sports networks broadcasting college football, basketball, baseball, and other Olympic sports.

He graduated from Dickinson College (PA) in 2010 and currently resides in Northern Virginia.

KEVIN BROWN
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Kevin Brown is in his fifth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team and his second as the primary television play-by-play announcer for MASN. Brown began his tenure with the Orioles in 2019 as one of the club's play-by-play announcers on the Orioles Radio Network, while making select appearances on MASN each season.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Brown has called MLB Postseason games on ESPN Radio for the past three years. He also serves as a play-by-play announcer for ESPN for several collegiate sports, including football, basketball, softball, and hockey. He has also called the Women's College World Series the past two years. Brown has also called Little League games on ESPN.

From 2011-17, Brown worked for the Syracuse Chiefs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals, serving as the Assistant Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations from 2011-14, and Director from 2015-17, where he was the lead voice of the team, calling radio and television broadcasts.

Brown graduated from Newhouse School at Syracuse University (NY) in 2011 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Brianne, and dog, Shep.

SCOTT GARCEAU

Scott Garceau is in his 17th season as a member of the Orioles broadcasting team and his 44th year in the Baltimore sports landscape. He rejoined the club in 2020 as a television play-by-play announcer, after previously spending 13 seasons as part of the broadcast team from 1981-92, including the 1983 World Series Championship season. Garceau appears on both MASN and the Orioles Radio Network as a play-by-play announcer and pre- and post-game show host.

A five-time Maryland Sportscaster of the Year award winner, Garceau began his career in Baltimore in 1980 as a sports anchor for WMAR-TV. After 28 years with WMAR, Garceau transitioned to 105.7 The Fan in 2008, serving as an original co-host of the afternoon drive show. The original voice of the Baltimore Ravens Radio Network, Garceau broadcast the Ravens' first 10 seasons, including the 2001 Super Bowl Championship. He has also broadcast college lacrosse and college basketball for ESPN.

Garceau and his wife, Georgeanna, currently reside in Fallston, Md. His two married daughters, Kelly and Dani, and four grandchildren also live in Harford County.

BRETT HOLLANDER
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Brett Hollander is in his fourth season as an in-game contributor on both MASN and the Orioles Radio Network, appearing across platforms as a radio play-by-play announcer, sideline reporter, and pre- and post-game show host.

A lifelong Baltimore resident, Hollander began covering the Orioles in 2008 for CBS Radio. He joined WBAL Radio in 2010 as the host of Sportsline and anchored the then-flagship station's Orioles coverage from 2011-14. Hollander has extensively covered Baltimore sports, ranging from collegiate athletics to the Ravens and Orioles, and has appeared on various local stations including on WBAL-TV and 98 Rock FM. He was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year in 2015.

Hollander graduated from Dickinson College (PA) in 2007 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Erin, and two daughters, Mae and Violet.

DAVE JOHNSON
COLOR ANALYST

Dave Johnson is returning to the Orioles broadcast team for select appearances in 2023.

A Baltimore native, Johnson spent three of his five seasons in Major League Baseball with the Orioles from 1989-91. Johnson made a name for himself with the O's after helping the 1989 "Why Not?" club stay in the pennant race to the final weekend of the season. He continued to impress fans in 1990, leading the Orioles with 13 wins and ranking first among O's starters with a 4.10 ERA.

His broadcasting career began in 1996, when he served as color analyst for Home Team Sports' production of the 16-to 18-year old Babe Ruth World Series. He also spent two years as a postgame analyst for Comcast SportsNet before joining the Orioles' flagship stations in 2006-10 as a co-host of the Orioles' Radio Network pre- and postgame shows, as well as serving as a color analyst for MASN's Orioles coverage. He returned to the team most recently in 2020, making select appearances on both radio and MASN.

Johnson currently resides in Fallston, Md., with his wife, Tera. The couple has two sons, Daniel, a Production Tech for WMAR-TV 2, and Steve, who pitched for the Orioles over three seasons, including going 4-0 in 2012 and helping the Orioles to their first postseason appearance in 14 years. Steve now owns a baseball training center in Bel Air, Md. Dave and Steve made their first home start, and got the win, for the O's exactly 23 years apart on August 8, 1989, and August 8, 2012.

ROB LONG
REPORTER

Rob Long is in his fifth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, serving as an in-game contributor and pre- and postgame show host for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. Long first made his MASN debut in 2009. In addition to his work with the Orioles, Long serves as a host of the Big Bad Morning Show on 105.7 The Fan.

Prior to his career in broadcasting, Long served as a police officer in South Carolina, and was a member of the United States Air Force. A native of Baltimore, Long is also the head coach of the Mount Carmel women's basketball team.

He currently resides in Essex with his wife, Yedda, and two children, Robbie and Stephie.

BEN MCDONALD
COLOR ANALYST

Ben McDonald joined the Orioles talent lineup full-time in 2018 after spending eight years as a regular contributor on O's broadcasts, having made select appearances on the MASN and the Orioles Radio Network since 2010.

The former right-handed pitcher spent seven of his nine Major League seasons with the Orioles from 1989-95 after being selected by Baltimore with the number one overall pick in the 1989 First-Year Player Draft. His career started on a high note, throwing a four-hit shutout in his first career start. He went on to win 40 games over three years, and threw more than 200 innings in a season three times. He finished his career with an overall record of 78-70, including 58-58 with the O's. In addition to his Major League and collegiate baseball career, McDonald also won a gold medal in the 1988 Olympics, picking up two wins for Team USA.

McDonald's broadcasting career began in 2003 as a color analyst for Louisiana State University Baseball, his alma mater. In addition to his work with the Orioles, McDonald serves as a color analyst for ESPN and the SEC Network, including covering the Men's College World Series.

McDonald currently resides in Denham Springs, La., with his wife, Nicole. The couple have two children, daughter Jorie, and son Jase, a pitcher at Louisiana State University at Eunice.

MELANIE NEWMAN
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Melanie Newman is in her fourth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. She serves as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network and appears on MASN as a play-by-play analyst, in-game reporter, and host of the pre- and post-game shows.

Since making history in 2020 as the first female play-by-play announcer in Orioles history, Newman has continued to break barriers. On July 21, 2021, she was part of the first all-female broadcast team for a Major League Baseball game, when the Orioles faced the Tampa Bay Rays on YouTube's "MLB Game of the Week." Two months later on September 29, Newman joined Jessica Mendoza in the booth for the first all-female MLB broadcast on ESPN.

Newman has been calling professional baseball games for nine years. She previously served as the announcer for the Boston Red Sox Advanced-A affiliate Salem Red Sox, where she was a part of the first all-female booth in professional baseball, the Texas Rangers Double-A affiliate Frisco RoughRiders, and the Arizona Diamondbacks Double-A affiliate Mobile BayBears. She also served as a media communications coordinator for the Arizona Fall League.

In addition to her work in Major League Baseball, Newman serves as a host for MLB Network and has made appearances on ESPN and the ACC Network. Her work has included serving as a sideline reporter for the World Axe Throwing League, ACC men's and women's championship events, the Big South Conference, and FBS Bowl Games.

Newman graduated from Troy University (AL) in 2013 and currently resides in the Baltimore area with her spouse, Andrew, and their cats, Dwight and Angela.

COLOR ANALYST

National Baseball Hall of Famer and Orioles Legend Jim Palmer is in his 31st season as a color analyst with MASN. The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Palmer spent his entire career with Baltimore after signing with the club in 1963.

Palmer made his Major League Debut in 1965 at 19 years old. One year later, he became the youngest pitcher in Major League history to throw a shutout in the World Series, beating Sandy Koufax in Game 2, and the Orioles would go on to sweep the Dodgers for the first World Series Championship in franchise history. Palmer was a member of all three of the Orioles' World Series Championship teams, and went 8-3 with a 2.61 ERA in 17 postseason games. He was the first pitcher in Major League Baseball history to win a World Series in three different decades.

Palmer is known for being one of baseball's premier pitchers in the 1970s, throwing more innings and recording more wins than any other American League pitcher during the decade. Among his numerous accomplishments include a no-hitter against Oakland in 1969, and never giving up a grand slam in his career.

He finished his career with a 268-152 record with a 2.86 ERA and 2,212 strikeouts. An eight-time 20-game winner, Palmer led his league in innings pitched four times, wins three times and ERA twice. He was named an All-Star six times, including four starts, and is a four-time Gold Glove Award winner.

Palmer was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990. He currently resides in Palm Beach, Fla., with his wife Susan.

ADRIENNE ROBERSON
PA ANNOUNCER

Adrienne Roberson is entering her third season as the public address announcer for the Baltimore Orioles. She became the first female voice of Oriole Park when she was named to the position full-time at the start of the 2021 season, becoming the fourth active female PA announcer in Major League Baseball. The 2022 season marks Roberson's 22nd in professional baseball, after spending 18 years as the voice of the Bowie Baysox, the organization's Double-A affiliate. During that time, Roberson made several appearances as a guest public address announcer for the Orioles, including Mother's Day Weekend celebrations from 2015-19. She began her career with the Knoxville Smokies, the Double-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays, where she spent two seasons.

Roberson has also spent the last 10 years as a PA announcer for Georgetown University Athletics, announcing men's lacrosse, football, women's basketball, softball, soccer, and volleyball games. Away from sports, Roberson records audiobooks and voiceovers, and works for Archbishop Spalding in Severn, Md., as their Attendance Coordinator.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Roberson received her Bachelor of Science in Communication, Broadcasting, and Sports Management from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville in 1997. She currently resides in Baltimore.

"SARASOTA'S CROWN JEWEL"

The 2023 season marks the Orioles 13th year of holding Major League Spring Training operations at the renovated Ed Smith Stadium. "Sarasota's Crown Jewel" was fully renovated in 2011, complete with four practice fields, one practice half-field, a clubhouse, indoor batting cages, pitching mounds, stadium field lights, an electronic scoreboard, concession facilities, locker rooms for umpires, tournament office hub, press box, expansive concourse areas, and ample parking. Its modern amenities, mixed with historical Florida architecture, have helped Ed Smith Stadium truly become "Birdland South."
